In exercise of the powers conferred by section 527(2) of the Insolvency, Restructuring and Dissolution Act 2018, the Minister for Law makes the following Regulations:

Citation and commencement

1. These Regulations are the Insolvency, Restructuring and Dissolution (Saving and Transitional Provisions) Regulations 2020 and come into operation on 30 July 2020.

Definitions

2. In these Regulations —

“Bankruptcy Act” means the Bankruptcy Act (Cap. 20) as in force immediately before 30 July 2020;

“Companies Act” means the Companies Act (Cap. 50) as in force immediately before 30 July 2020.

Additional transitional provisions

3.—(1) Section 440 of the Act does not apply to or in relation to any contract entered into before 30 July 2020.

(2) Where there is any reference to the Official Assignee in any other written law which, in the context in which the term occurs, would be construed before 30 July 2020 as a reference to the Official Assignee appointed under section 17 of the Bankruptcy Act, and would be construed on or after that date as a reference to the Official Assignee appointed under section 16(1) of the Act, then unless the context otherwise requires, for the purpose of the operation of such other written law upon the commencement of Parts 3 and 13 to 22 and section 450 of the Act, any reference to the Official Assignee in that written law as in force immediately before that date is to be read as a reference to the Official Assignee appointed under section 16(1) of the Act, and anything that was commenced by, submitted to or lodged with the Official Assignee under that written law before that date may be carried on and completed by the Official Assignee appointed under section 16(1) of the Act, and for this purpose —

- (a) anything that was submitted to or lodged with the Official Assignee under that written law before that date is to be treated as having been submitted to or lodged with the Official Assignee appointed under section 16(1) of the Act; and
- (b) anything done by the Official Assignee under that written law before that date is to be treated as having been done by the Official Assignee appointed under section 16(1) of the Act.

(3) In paragraph (2), “any other written law” excludes —

- (a) Parts 1 to 23 of the Act;
- (b) the Bankruptcy Act; and
- (c) the provisions of the Acts mentioned in sections 452 to 524 of the Act.

(4) Where there is any reference to the Official Receiver in any other written law which, in the context in which the term occurs, would be construed before 30 July 2020 as a reference to the Official Receiver as defined in section 4(1) of the Companies Act, and would be construed on or after that date as a reference to the Official Receiver appointed under section 17(1) of the Act, then unless the context otherwise requires, for the purpose of the operation of such other written law upon the commencement of Parts 3 to 12 and 22 and section 451 of the Act, any reference to the Official Receiver in that written law as in force immediately before that date is to be read as a reference to the Official Receiver appointed under section 17(1) of the Act, and anything that was commenced by, submitted to or lodged with the Official Receiver under that written law before that date may be carried on and completed by the Official Receiver appointed under section 17(1) of the Act, and for this purpose —

- (a) anything that was submitted to or lodged with the Official Receiver under that written law before that date is to be treated as having been submitted to or lodged with the Official Receiver appointed under section 17(1) of the Act; and
 - (b) anything done by the Official Receiver under that written law before that date is to be treated as having been done by the Official Receiver appointed under section 17(1) of the Act.
- (5) In paragraph (4), “any other written law” excludes —
- (a) Parts 1 to 23 of the Act;
 - (b) the Companies Act; and
 - (c) the provisions of the Acts mentioned in sections 452 to 524 of the Act.

Additional saving and transitional provisions for repeal of Bankruptcy Act

- 4.—(1) For the purposes of section 525(1) of the Act —
- (a) any person who was a member of an Appeal Panel mentioned in section 56Q of the Bankruptcy Act immediately before 30 July 2020 continues as a member of the Appeal Panel despite section 450 of the Act; and
 - (b) section 56Q of the Bankruptcy Act continues to apply to such person mentioned in paragraph (a) or the appointment of any other person as a member of an Appeal Panel as if section 450 of the Act had not been enacted.

(2) Despite section 450 of the Act, section 165A(1) of the Bankruptcy Act continues to apply to or in relation to —

- (a) any compoundable offence reasonably suspected to have been committed before 30 July 2020; or
- (b) any compoundable offence reasonably suspected to have been committed on or after that date under the Bankruptcy Act the operation of which is continued by virtue of section 525(1) of the Act or any regulations made under section 527(2) of the Act.

(3) In paragraph (2), “compoundable offence” means an offence prescribed as a compoundable offence under the Bankruptcy (Composition of Offences) Rules (Cap. 20, R 5) as in force immediately before 30 July 2020.

Saving and transitional provision for amendment of Air Navigation Act

5. Despite section 453 of the Act, section 29B(1) of the Air Navigation Act (Cap. 6) as in force immediately before 30 July 2020 continues to apply to or in relation to any financial penalty imposed by the Civil Aviation Authority of Singapore established by section 4 of the Civil Aviation Authority of Singapore Act (Cap. 41) on any person who is adjudged bankrupt pursuant to a bankruptcy application made before that date.

Saving and transitional provisions for amendment of Banking Act

6.—(1) Despite section 454(b) of the Act, section 61(2) of the Banking Act (Cap. 19) as in force immediately before 30 July 2020 continues to apply to or in relation to the liabilities in Singapore of a bank that is wound up pursuant to —

- (a) an order for winding up of a company made under section 216(2)(f) of the Companies Act before that date;
- (b) an application for winding up made under section 253 of the Companies Act before that date;

- (c) an application made before that date for the winding up of an unregistered company under section 351 of the Companies Act;
 - (d) a voluntary winding up that commenced within the meaning of section 291(6) of the Companies Act before that date; or
 - (e) an application for winding up arising from a notice of commencement of liquidation or dissolution proceedings in its place of incorporation or origin that was lodged under section 377(2)(a) of the Companies Act before that date.

(2) Despite section 454(c) of the Act, section 63(1)(b) of the Banking Act as in force immediately before 30 July 2020 continues to apply to or in relation to a bank that is wound up pursuant to —

- (a) an order for winding up of a company made under section 216(2)(f) of the Companies Act before that date;
- (b) an application for winding up made under section 253 of the Companies Act before that date;
- (c) an application made before that date for the winding up of an unregistered company under section 351 of the Companies Act;
- (d) a voluntary winding up that commenced within the meaning of section 291(6) of the Companies Act before that date; or
- (e) an application for winding up arising from a notice of commencement of liquidation or dissolution proceedings in its place of incorporation or origin that was lodged under section 377(2)(a) of the Companies Act before that date.

Saving and transitional provisions for amendment of Bus Services Industry Act 2015

7.—(1) Despite section 455(a) of the Act, section 21(1)(b) of the Bus Services Industry Act 2015 (Act 30 of 2015) as in force immediately before 30 July 2020 continues to apply to or in relation to a public bus operator holding a Class 1 bus service licence, in respect of which an application for a judicial management order was made before that date under the Companies Act.

(2) Section 455(b) and (c) of the Act does not apply to or in relation to any application under section 210 of the Companies Act made before 30 July 2020 in relation to a company that is a public bus operator holding a Class 1 bus service licence.

(3) Despite section 455(c) of the Act, section 21(2) of the Bus Services Industry Act 2015 as in force immediately before 30 July 2020 continues to apply to or in relation to any proceedings relating to the winding up of a company that is a public bus operator holding a Class 1 bus service licence, being proceedings arising from —

- (a) an order for winding up of the company made under section 216(2)(f) of the Companies Act before that date;
- (b) an application for winding up made under section 253 of the Companies Act before that date; or
- (c) a voluntary winding up that commenced within the meaning of section 291(6) of the Companies Act before that date.

(4) Despite section 455(e) of the Act, section 39(10) of the Bus Services Industry Act 2015 as in force immediately before 30 July 2020 continues to apply to or in relation to a company that is a licensee in respect of which a written notice under section 39(3) of the Bus Services Industry Act 2015 was given before that date.

Saving and transitional provision for amendment of Business Names Registration Act 2014

8. Despite section 456 of the Act, section 17(2)(b) of the Business Names Registration Act 2014 (Act 29 of 2014) as in force immediately before 30 July 2020 continues to apply to or in relation to a business that seeks to be registered under, or seeks to change its registered business name to, a business name that is identical to the name of a company that was dissolved following its winding up under Part X of the Companies Act.

Saving and transitional provisions for amendment of Business Trusts Act

9.—(1) Despite section 457(a) and (d) of the Act, section 48(1) of the Business Trusts Act (Cap. 31A) as in force immediately before 30 July 2020, read with the definition of “approved liquidator” in section 2 of the Business Trusts Act as in force immediately before that date, continues to apply to or in relation to any appointment before that date of an approved liquidator to take responsibility for winding up a registered business trust, and for this purpose section 526(2)(a) of the Act applies to or in relation to any approved liquidator who was appointed before that date to take responsibility for winding up the registered business trust.

(2) For the purposes of section 457(b) and (d) of the Act, section 527(1) and (3) of the Act applies as if —

- (a) the definition of “appointed day” in section 527(3) of the Act were amended by deleting the words “Division 3 of Part 3 comes” and substituting the words “Division 3 of Part 3 and section 457 come”; and
- (b) paragraph (a) of the definition of “relevant work” in section 527(3) of the Act were amended by inserting, immediately after the words “this Act”, the words “or acting as a liquidator of a registered business trust under section 48 of the Business Trusts Act”.

(3) For the purpose of section 457(c) of the Act, any reference in section 2 (definition of “liquidator”) and sections 40A(8) and (9) and 49(1), (2), (6) and (7) of the Business Trusts Act, as in force immediately before 30 July 2020, to the Official Receiver is to be read as a reference to the Official Receiver within the meaning given by section 2(1) of the Act.

Saving and transitional provision for amendment of Child Development Co-Savings Act

10. Despite section 459 of the Act, section 5(b) of the Child Development Co-Savings Act (Cap. 38A) as in force immediately before 30 July 2020 continues to apply to or in relation to any payment into a member's bank account by a parent who is adjudged bankrupt arising from a bankruptcy application made before that date.

Saving and transitional provisions for amendment of Chit Funds Act

11.—(1) Despite section 460(a) of the Act, section 53(1) of the Chit Funds Act (Cap. 39) as in force immediately before 30 July 2020 continues to apply to or in relation to any chit fund company that is wound up pursuant to —

- (a) an order for winding up of the company made under section 216(2)(f) of the Companies Act before that date;
- (b) an application for winding up made under section 253 of the Companies Act before that date; or
- (c) a voluntary winding up that commenced within the meaning of section 291(6) of the Companies Act before that date.

(2) Despite section 460(b) of the Act, section 54(1) of the Chit Funds Act as in force immediately before 30 July 2020 continues to apply to or in relation to any chit fund company that is wound up pursuant to —

- (a) an order for winding up of the company made under section 216(2)(f) of the Companies Act before that date;
- (b) an application for winding up made under section 253 of the Companies Act before that date; or
- (c) a voluntary winding up that commenced within the meaning of section 291(6) of the Companies Act before that date.

Saving and transitional provisions for amendment of Civil Aviation Authority of Singapore Act

12.—(1) Despite section 461(a) of the Act, section 72(6) of the Civil Aviation Authority of Singapore Act as in force immediately before 30 July 2020 continues to apply to or in relation to a company that is an airport licensee in respect of which an application under section 72(1) of the Civil Aviation Authority of Singapore Act was made before that date.

(2) Despite section 461(c) of the Act, section 75(1)(b) of the Civil Aviation Authority of Singapore Act as in force immediately before 30 July 2020 continues to apply to or in relation to an airport licensee in respect of which an application for a judicial management order was made before that date under the Companies Act.

(3) Section 461(d) and (e) of the Act does not apply to or in relation to any application under section 210 of the Companies Act made before 30 July 2020 in relation to a company that is an airport licensee.

(4) Despite section 461(e) of the Act, section 75(2) of the Civil Aviation Authority of Singapore Act as in force immediately before 30 July 2020 continues to apply to or in relation to any proceedings relating to the winding up of the affairs of a company that is an airport licensee, being proceedings arising from —

- (a) an order for winding up of a company made under section 216(2)(f) of the Companies Act before that date;
- (b) an application for winding up made under section 253 of the Companies Act before that date;
- (c) an application made before that date for the winding up of an unregistered company under section 351 of the Companies Act;
- (d) a voluntary winding up that commenced within the meaning of section 291(6) of the Companies Act before that date;
- (e) a notice of commencement of liquidation or dissolution proceedings in its place of incorporation or origin that was lodged under section 377(2)(a) of the Companies Act before that date; or
- (f) an application made before that date for recognition of a foreign proceeding under Article 15(1) of the Tenth Schedule to the Companies Act.

Saving and transitional provision for amendment of Civil Law Act

13. Despite section 462 of the Act, section 4(1) of the Civil Law Act (Cap. 43) as in force immediately before 30 July 2020 continues to apply to or in relation to a company that is wound up pursuant to —

- (a) an order for winding up of the company made under section 216(2)(f) of the Companies Act before that date;
- (b) an application for winding up made under section 253 of the Companies Act before that date;
- (c) an application made before that date for the winding up of an unregistered company under section 351 of the Companies Act;
- (d) a voluntary winding up that commenced within the meaning of section 291(6) of the Companies Act before that date;
- (e) an application for winding up arising from a notice of commencement of liquidation or dissolution proceedings in its place of incorporation or origin that was lodged under section 377(2)(a) of the Companies Act before that date; or
- (f) an application for winding up arising from an application made before that date for recognition of a foreign proceeding under Article 15(1) of the Tenth Schedule to the Companies Act.

Saving and transitional provisions for amendment of Consumer Protection (Fair Trading) Act

14.—(1) Despite section 451(16) of the Act, section 9(4)(d)(iv) of the Consumer Protection (Fair Trading) Act (Cap. 52A) as in force immediately before 30 July 2020, read with section 211I of the Companies Act, continues to apply to or in relation to a supplier that made an application under section 211I of the Companies Act for the approval of the Court in relation to a compromise or arrangement before that date, as if section 451(16) of the Act had not been enacted.

(2) Despite section 463(b) of the Act, section 9(4)(d)(v) of the Consumer Protection (Fair Trading) Act as in force immediately before 30 July 2020 continues to apply to a supplier in respect of which an appointment was made before that date of a receiver or manager of the property of the supplier (being a company) or of the property in Singapore of the supplier (being any other corporation).

(3) Despite section 463(c) of the Act, section 9(4)(d)(vi) of the Consumer Protection (Fair Trading) Act as in force immediately before 30 July 2020 continues to apply to a supplier that is placed under judicial management —

- (a) pursuant to an application made before that date for a judicial management order under section 227B(1) of the Companies Act; or
- (b) arising from an application made before that date for recognition of a foreign proceeding under Article 15(1) of the Tenth Schedule to the Companies Act.

(4) Despite section 463(d) of the Act, section 9(4)(d)(vii) of the Consumer Protection (Fair Trading) Act as in force immediately before 30 July 2020 continues to apply to a supplier that is wound up pursuant to —

- (a) an order for winding up of a company made under section 216(2)(f) of the Companies Act before that date;
- (b) an application for winding up made under section 253 of the Companies Act before that date;
- (c) an application made before that date for the winding up of an unregistered company under section 351 of the Companies Act;
- (d) a voluntary winding up that commenced within the meaning of section 291(6) of the Companies Act before that date;
- (e) an application for winding up arising from a notice of commencement of liquidation or dissolution proceedings in its place of incorporation or origin that was lodged under section 377(2)(a) of the Companies Act before that date; or
- (f) an application for winding up arising from an application made before that date for recognition of a foreign proceeding under Article 15(1) of the Tenth Schedule to the Companies Act.

Saving and transitional provision for amendment of Conveyancing and Law of Property Act

15. Despite section 464 of the Act, section 73B of the Conveyancing and Law of Property Act (Cap. 61) as in force immediately before 30 July 2020 continues to apply to or in relation to any conveyance of property made before that date.

Saving and transitional provisions for amendment of Corruption, Drug Trafficking and Other Serious Crimes (Confiscation of Benefits) Act

16.—(1) Despite section 466(a) and (b) of the Act, section 12(6)(a) and (b) of the Corruption, Drug Trafficking and Other Serious Crimes (Confiscation of Benefits) Act (Cap. 65A) as in force immediately before 30 July 2020 continues to apply to or in relation to a confiscation order made before that date.

(2) Despite section 466(c), (d), (e) and (f) of the Act, section 23(1), (2) and (3) of the Corruption, Drug Trafficking and Other Serious Crimes (Confiscation of Benefits) Act as in force immediately before 30 July 2020 continues to apply to or in relation to the property of any person who is adjudged bankrupt pursuant to a bankruptcy application made before that date.

(3) Despite section 466(d) and (g) of the Act, section 23(5) of the Corruption, Drug Trafficking and Other Serious Crimes (Confiscation of Benefits) Act as in force immediately before 30 July 2020 continues to apply to or in relation to any property of a debtor in respect of which an interim receiver is appointed under section 73 of the Bankruptcy Act arising from a bankruptcy application made before that date.

(4) Despite section 466(h) of the Act, section 23(6) of the Corruption, Drug Trafficking and Other Serious Crimes (Confiscation of Benefits) Act as in force immediately before 30 July 2020 continues to apply to or in relation to any confiscation order made against a person who is adjudged bankrupt arising from a bankruptcy application made before that date.

(5) Despite section 466(i) and (j) of the Act, section 24(3) and (5) of the Corruption, Drug Trafficking and Other Serious Crimes (Confiscation of Benefits) Act as in force immediately before 30 July 2020 continues to apply to or in relation to the exercise of the powers mentioned in section 24(2) of the Corruption, Drug Trafficking and Other Serious Crimes (Confiscation of Benefits) Act in relation to the property of any company that is wound up pursuant to —

- (a) an order for winding up of the company made under section 216(2)(f) of the Companies Act before that date;
- (b) an application for winding up made under section 253 of the Companies Act before that date;
- (c) an application made before that date for the winding up of an unregistered company under section 351 of the Companies Act;
- (d) a voluntary winding up that commenced within the meaning of section 291(6) of the Companies Act before that date;
- (e) an application for winding up arising from a notice of commencement of liquidation or dissolution proceedings in its place of incorporation or origin that was lodged under section 377(2)(a) of the Companies Act before that date; or
- (f) an application for winding up arising from an application made before that date for recognition of a foreign proceeding under Article 15(1) of the Tenth Schedule to the Companies Act.

Saving provisions for amendment of Deposit Insurance and Policy Owners' Protection Schemes Act

17.—(1) Despite section 468(a) of the Act, the definition of “liquidator” in section 2(1) of the Deposit Insurance and Policy Owners' Protection Schemes Act (Cap. 77B) as in force immediately before 30 July 2020 continues to apply to or in relation to —

- (a) sections 10(1)(a)(v), 27(5)(a)(ii), 28(4)(a) to (d), 28A(1)(a) and 29(1) of the Deposit Insurance and Policy Owners' Protection Schemes Act, in a case where a DI scheme member is wound up pursuant to —
- (i) an order for winding up of a company made under section 216(2)(f) of the Companies Act before that date;
 - (ii) an application for winding up made under section 253 of the Companies Act before that date;
 - (iii) an application made before that date for the winding up of an unregistered company under section 351 of the Companies Act;
 - (iv) a voluntary winding up that commenced within the meaning of section 291(6) of the Companies Act before that date; or
 - (v) an application for winding up arising from a notice of commencement of liquidation or dissolution proceedings in its place of incorporation or origin that was lodged under section 377(2)(a) of the Companies Act before that date; or
- (b) sections 52(5)(a)(ii), 53(4)(a), (b), (c) and (d), 54A(1)(a) and 55(1) of the Deposit Insurance and Policy Owners' Protection Schemes Act, in a case where a PPF Scheme member is wound up pursuant to —
- (i) an order for winding up of a company made under section 216(2)(f) of the Companies Act before that date;
 - (ii) an application for winding up made under section 253 of the Companies Act before that date;
 - (iii) an application made before that date for the winding up of an unregistered company under section 351 of the Companies Act;

- (iv) a voluntary winding up that commenced within the meaning of section 291(6) of the Companies Act before that date; or
 - (v) an application for winding up arising from a notice of commencement of liquidation or dissolution proceedings in its place of incorporation or origin that was lodged under section 377(2)(a) of the Companies Act before that date.

(2) Despite section 468(b) and (c) of the Act, the definition of “quantification date” in section 2(1) of the Deposit Insurance and Policy Owners’ Protection Schemes Act as in force immediately before 30 July 2020 continues to apply wherever the words “quantification date” are used in the Deposit Insurance and Policy Owners’ Protection Schemes Act in relation to any of the following:

- (a) a DI Scheme member that is wound up pursuant to —
 - (i) an order for winding up of a company made under section 216(2)(f) of the Companies Act before that date;
 - (ii) an application for winding up made under section 253 of the Companies Act before that date;
 - (iii) an application made before that date for the winding up of an unregistered company under section 351 of the Companies Act;
 - (iv) a voluntary winding up that commenced within the meaning of section 291(6) of the Companies Act before that date; or
 - (v) an application for winding up arising from a notice of commencement of liquidation or dissolution proceedings in its place of incorporation or origin that was lodged under section 377(2)(a) of the Companies Act before that date;

- (b) a PPF Scheme member that is wound up pursuant to —
- (i) an order for winding up of a company made under section 216(2)(f) of the Companies Act before that date;
 - (ii) an application for winding up made under section 253 of the Companies Act before that date;
 - (iii) an application made before that date for the winding up of an unregistered company under section 351 of the Companies Act;
