(1A) For the purposes of the definitions of “foreign investor” and “foreign mutual fund corporation” in paragraph (1), the relevant percentage shall be determined in accordance with the formula

$$\frac{A - B}{C - B} \times 100\%$$

- where A is
- (a) in the case of paragraph (b)(i) of the definition of “foreign investor”, the total number of the issued shares that are beneficially owned, directly or indirectly, by persons who are citizens of Singapore or resident in Singapore;
 - (b) in the case of paragraph (b)(ii) of the definition of “foreign investor”, the total value of the issued securities that are beneficially owned, directly or indirectly, by persons who are citizens of Singapore or resident in Singapore;
 - (c) in the case of paragraph (c) of the definition of “foreign investor”, the total value of the trust fund that is beneficially held, directly or indirectly, by persons who are not individuals or companies referred to in paragraph (a) or (b), as the case may be, of that definition; and

(d) in the case of the definition of “foreign mutual fund corporation”, the total number of the issued shares that are beneficially owned, directly or indirectly, by persons who are not individuals or companies referred to in paragraph (a) or (b), as the case may be, of the definition of “foreign investor” in paragraph (1);

B is the total number of the issued shares, the total value of the issued securities, or the total value of the trust fund, as the case may be, beneficially owned or held, directly or indirectly, by designated persons; and

C is the total number of the issued shares, the total value of the issued securities or the total value of the trust fund, as the case may be.

(3) The qualifying base shall be subject to tax at the rate of tax under section 43(1)(a) of the Act and, where the qualifying base is a loss, shall be deducted from the income subject to tax at the rate of tax under that provision.

(4) In this regulation —

“qualifying base” means the amount calculated by multiplying the specified income derived or the specified loss incurred, as the case may be, before 1st January 2011, by the initial qualifying base percentage or subsequent qualifying base percentage, as the case may be, determined under regulation 10;

[S 638/2011 wef 01/01/2011]

“specified income” or “specified loss” means the aggregate of the following:

- (a) interest income from the activities specified in paragraph (1), after deducting any interest expense allowable under the Act which is attributable to such interest income;

- (b) all fees, commissions and other income from the activities specified in paragraphs (1), (2A), (2B), (2C), (2D), (2E), (2F) and (2G), after deducting any direct expense allowable under the Act which is attributable to such fees, commissions or other income; and
- (c) profits or loss from the disposal of equity securities, debt securities or secondary loans specified in paragraph (1), after deducting any specific provision allowable under the Act for the diminution in value of such securities or loans, and adding any taxable specific provision for diminution in value of such securities or loans which is written back.

12% tax payable on qualifying income of financial sector incentive (standard tier) company derived on or after 1st January 2011

4A.—(1) Subject to this regulation and regulation 7A, tax shall be payable at the rate of 12% on the income of a financial sector incentive (standard tier) company derived on or after 1st January 2011, being —

- (a) income from any of the activities specified in the Fourth Schedule; and
- (b) interest from any deposit held by the company as a corporate futures member as a margin for any transaction in relation to any activity referred to in sub-paragraph (i), (k) or (l) of the Fourth Schedule.

(2) The concessionary rate of tax referred to in paragraph (1) shall not, unless otherwise approved by the Minister or such person as he may appoint, apply to —

- (a) any interest derived from any qualifying debt securities issued during the period from 10th May 1999 to 31st December 2013 (both dates inclusive);
 - (b) any discount from any qualifying debt securities issued during the period from 17th February 2006 to 31st December 2013 (both dates inclusive);
 - (c) any amount payable from any Islamic debt securities which are qualifying debt securities, and issued during the period from 1st January 2005 to 31st December 2013 (both dates inclusive); and
 - (d) any prepayment fee, redemption premium or break cost from qualifying debt securities issued during the period from 15th February 2007 to 31st December 2013 (both dates inclusive), where 50% or more of the issue of those securities is beneficially held or funded, directly or indirectly, at any time during the life of the issue by related parties of the issuer of those securities and where such income is derived by —

- (i) any financial sector incentive (standard tier) company which is a related party of the issuer of those securities; or
- (ii) any financial sector incentive (standard tier) company where the funds used by such company to acquire those securities are obtained, directly or indirectly, from any related party of the issuer of those securities.

(3) The concessionary rate of tax referred to in paragraph (1) shall not apply to any income derived by a financial sector incentive (standard tier) company from any qualifying debt securities issued during the relevant period referred to in paragraph (2), where the issuer of such securities, or such other person as the Comptroller may direct, has not furnished to the Comptroller in respect of the issue of the debt securities —

- (a) a return on those securities within such period as the Comptroller may specify; and

(b) such other particulars in connection with those securities as the Comptroller may require.

(4) In this Regulation, “break cost”, “prepayment fee”, “redemption premium” and “related party” have the same meanings as in section 13(16) of the Act.

[S 54/2010 wef 16/02/2008]

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1)(b), where a financial sector incentive (credit facilities syndication) company holds any bonds, notes, certificates of deposit or other instruments of indebtedness issued under a facility referred to in paragraph (d) or (e) of the definition of “offshore credit facility” in regulation 2(1), the rate of tax of 5% referred to in paragraph (1) shall not apply to any income derived from the holding of those bonds, notes, certificates of deposit or other instruments of indebtedness or the profits arising from the sale thereof.

[S 54/2010 wef 16/02/2008]

(3) Notwithstanding paragraph (1)(b), (g) and (o), where —

- (a) funds raised from any syndicated offshore facility are used solely to refinance previous borrowings; or
- (b) part of the funds raised from any syndicated offshore facility are used to refinance previous borrowings, and the remaining part of which are used outside Singapore, and where —

- (i) the previous borrowings were granted by a person resident in Singapore or permanent establishment in Singapore (other than those borrowings the income derived therefrom was exempt from tax under section 43A(2) of the Act); or

- (ii) the funds raised from previous borrowings were used in Singapore, the income of a financial sector incentive (credit facilities syndication) company in relation to that syndicated offshore facility shall, for the purpose of paragraph (1), be determined by multiplying the income from the syndicated offshore facility by $(1 - A/B)$, where —

A is the amount of the funds raised from the syndicated offshore facility used to refinance previous borrowings where —

- (i) the previous borrowings were granted by a person resident in Singapore or permanent establishment in Singapore (other than those borrowings the income derived therefrom was exempt from tax under section 43A(2) of the Act); or
- (ii) the funds raised from previous borrowings were used in Singapore; and

B is the total amount of the syndicated offshore facility.

[S 54/2010 wef 16/02/2008]

(4) Notwithstanding paragraph (1)(b) or (o), where not more than 10% of the funds raised from any syndicated offshore facility arranged, underwritten or granted by a financial sector incentive (credit facilities syndication) company on or after 1st May 2009 is used in Singapore for the sole purpose of discharging any professional fees incurred in respect of the facility, the income of the company in relation to that syndicated offshore facility shall, for the purpose of paragraph (1), be determined by multiplying the income from the syndicated offshore facility by the formula

$$1 - \frac{A}{B}$$

where A is the amount of the funds raised from the syndicated offshore facility so used in Singapore; and

B is the total amount of the syndicated offshore facility.

[S 835/2010 wef 01/05/2009]

(5) Paragraph (1)(k)(v), (l)(v) and (m)(ii) shall not apply to any income attributable to activities carried out in Singapore which —

(a) add value to the commodities by any physical alteration, addition or improvement (including refining, blending or processing) of the commodities; or

(b) relate to the storage or bulk-breaking of the commodities.

[S 835/2010 wef 31/12/2010]

(6) The rate of 5% under paragraph (1)(o) shall not apply if the financial sector incentive (credit facilities syndication) company fails to syndicate the facility as a syndicated facility within 6 months from the date of the signing of the initial loan agreement.

Determination of qualifying base percentage

10.—(1) The initial qualifying base percentage of a financial sector incentive (standard tier) company shall be determined in the following order:

- (a) 100%, if the previous incentive income for each of the 3 years of assessment immediately preceding the year of assessment relating to the basis period in which the company is approved for the first time or deemed to be approved as a financial sector incentive (standard tier) company is nil or less than nil;
- (b) 0%, if the previous non-incentive income for each of the 3 years of assessment immediately preceding the year of assessment relating to the basis period in which the company is approved for the first time or deemed to be approved as a financial sector incentive (standard tier) company is nil or less than nil;
- (c)

$$\frac{\text{average } (Y_i)}{\text{average } (X_i) + \text{average}(Y_i)} \times 100\%,$$

if for the 3 years of assessment immediately preceding the year of assessment relating to the basis period in which the company is approved for the first time or deemed to be approved as a financial sector incentive (standard tier) company, both the average of the previous incentive income and the average of the previous non-incentive income of the company are positive, where X_i is the previous incentive income for year of assessment i ;

Y_i is the previous non-incentive income for year of assessment i ; and i is each of the first, second and third years of assessment immediately preceding the year of assessment relating to the basis period in which the company is approved for the first time or deemed to be approved as a financial sector incentive (standard tier) company;

$$\frac{\text{average } (Y_j)}{\text{average } (X_j) + \text{average}(Y_j)} \times 100\%,$$

if for the 3 years of assessment immediately preceding the year of assessment relating to the basis period in which the company is approved for the first time or deemed to be approved as a financial sector incentive (standard tier) company, either the average of the previous incentive income of the company or the average of the previous non-incentive income of the company is, or both are, nil or less than nil, where X_j is the previous incentive income for year of assessment j ;

Y_j is the previous non-incentive income for year of assessment j ; and

j is each year of assessment which falls within the 3 years of assessment immediately preceding the year of assessment relating to the basis period in which the company is approved for the first time or deemed to be approved as a financial sector incentive (standard tier) company, and in which both the previous incentive income and the previous non-incentive income are positive; and

(e) 0%, in any other case.

(2) Where a company has less than 3 years of assessment immediately preceding the year of assessment relating to the basis period in which the company is approved for the first time or deemed to be approved as a financial sector incentive (standard tier) company —

(a) any reference in this regulation to the 3 years of assessment immediately preceding the year of assessment relating to that basis period shall be read as a reference to all the years of assessment immediately preceding the year of assessment relating to that basis period; and

- (b) any reference in this regulation to the first, second and third year of assessment immediately preceding the year of assessment relating to that basis period shall be construed accordingly.
- (3) Where the initial qualifying base percentage of the financial sector incentive (standard tier) company is 100%, the Minister or approving authority —
- (a) may, if he thinks fit, specify an initial qualifying base percentage to determine the qualifying base for the first or second year of assessment immediately after the year of assessment relating to the basis period in which the company is approved for the first time or deemed to be approved as a financial sector incentive (standard tier) company; and
- (b) shall specify an initial qualifying base percentage to determine the qualifying base for the third year of assessment immediately after the year of assessment relating to the basis period in which the company is approved for the first time or deemed to be approved as a financial sector incentive (standard tier) company, and any subsequent year of assessment.
- (4) Where the initial qualifying base percentage of the financial sector incentive (standard tier) company is 0% and where that company is approved as such for the first time for more than 5 years, the application of such percentage to the specified income or specified loss referred to in regulation 4(4) to determine the qualifying base shall be for a period not exceeding 5 years from the date the company is approved as a financial sector incentive (standard tier) company for the first time, and the Minister or approving authority shall specify the initial qualifying base percentage to be applied for the remaining incentive period.
- (5) The subsequent qualifying base percentage of the financial sector incentive (standard tier) company shall be determined in the following order:
- (a) a percentage specified by the Minister or approving authority, if the previous qualifying base percentage is 0%;

- (b) the previous qualifying base percentage, if there was no consecutive increase in the specified income or specified loss referred to in regulation 4(4) for the 3 years of assessment immediately preceding the year of assessment relating to the first basis period falling within the subsequent incentive period;
- (c) subject to sub-paragraph (d), a percentage calculated in accordance with the following formula:

where QB is the previous qualifying base percentage;

X is the specified income referred to in regulation 4(4) for the first year of assessment immediately preceding the year of assessment relating to the first basis period falling within the subsequent incentive period; and

Y is the specified income referred to in regulation 4(4) for the third year of assessment immediately preceding the year of assessment relating to the first basis period falling within the subsequent incentive period;

- (d) where the subsequent qualifying base percentage computed in accordance with sub-paragraph (c) is more than 100%, a percentage specified by the Minister or approving authority;
- (e) subject to sub-paragraph (f), a percentage calculated in accordance with the following formula:

where QB is the previous qualifying base percentage;

X is the specified loss referred to in regulation 4(4) for the first year of assessment immediately preceding the year of assessment relating to the first basis period falling within the subsequent incentive period; and

Y is the specified loss referred to in regulation 4(4) for the third year of assessment immediately preceding the year of assessment relating to the first basis period falling within the subsequent incentive period; and

(f) where the subsequent qualifying base percentage computed in accordance with sub-paragraph (e) is less than 0%, 0%.

(5A) Notwithstanding paragraph (5), where a company whose approval as a financial sector incentive (standard tier) company referred to in regulation 3(3) or 12 expires on or before 31st December 2010, whose initial qualifying base percentage is a percentage other than 0% or 100%, and whose approval period is extended for a further period under regulation 3(5), the company may —

- (a) continue to apply the initial qualifying base percentage to the specified income or specified loss, as the case may be, referred to in regulation 4 derived during the period from 1st January 2009 to any date on or before 31st December 2010 (referred to in this paragraph as “specified date”); and
- (b) apply the subsequent qualifying base percentage to the specified income or specified loss, as the case may be, referred to in regulation 4 from the day immediately after the specified date to the last day of the approval period extended under regulation 3(5).

(6) Notwithstanding paragraphs (1), (5) and (5A), the Minister or approving authority may in any particular case specify the initial or subsequent qualifying base percentage, or the method to determine the initial qualifying base percentage or subsequent qualifying base percentage, as he thinks fit, in lieu of any percentage or method specified in paragraph (1), (5) or (5A).

(7) The initial or subsequent qualifying base percentage specified by the Minister or approving authority under paragraph (3), (4), (5), (5A) or (6) shall not exceed 100%.

(8) A financial sector incentive (standard tier) company shall submit to the Comptroller a report from an external auditor, certifying that the initial qualifying base percentage of the company presents fairly the initial qualifying base percentage as prescribed in these Regulations, together with its return of income within the period specified under section 62 of the Act, except where —

- (a) the initial qualifying base percentage is 100%;
- (b) the financial sector incentive (standard tier) company is a company which —
 - (i) was incorporated or registered on or after 1st January 2004;
 - (ii) has not taken over any undertaking or business from any person in Singapore; and
 - (iii) has not derived any income during the period from the date of its incorporation or registration to the date it is approved as a financial sector incentive (standard tier) company; or
- (c) the financial sector incentive (standard tier) company is a company which —
 - (i) was incorporated or registered on or after 1st January 2004;
 - (ii) has not taken over any activity referred to in regulation 4 from any person in Singapore; and
 - (iii) was approved as a financial sector incentive (standard tier) company within 2 years from the date of commencement in Singapore of any activity referred to in regulation 4 by the company.

[S 835/2010 wef 01/01/2004]

(9) In this regulation —

“initial qualifying base percentage”, in relation to a financial sector incentive (standard tier) company, means the percentage used to compute the qualifying base referred to in regulation 4(4) in the period for which the company is approved for the first time or deemed to be approved as a financial sector incentive (standard tier) company;

“previous incentive income”, in relation to a financial sector incentive (standard tier) company, means specified previous income derived by the company which was subject to tax at the rate of tax of 10% in each of the 3 years of assessment immediately preceding the year of assessment relating to the basis period in which the company is approved for the first time or deemed to be approved as a financial sector incentive (standard tier) company;

“previous non-incentive income”, in relation to a financial sector incentive (standard tier) company, means specified previous income derived by the company which was subject to tax at the rate of tax under section 43(1)(a) of the Act in each of the 3 years of assessment immediately preceding the year of assessment relating to the basis period in which the company is approved for the first time or deemed to be approved as a financial sector incentive (standard tier) company;

“previous qualifying base percentage”, in relation to a financial sector incentive (standard tier) company, means the qualifying base percentage which was applied to the period during which the company was approved as a financial sector incentive (standard tier) company immediately preceding the date at which the subsequent qualifying base percentage is determined;

“specified previous income” means —

- (a) in the case of previous incentive income, the aggregate of the following:
 - (i) interest income from the activities specified in the First Schedule, after deducting any interest expense allowable under the Act which is attributable to such interest income;
 - (ii) all fees, commissions and other income from the activities specified in the First Schedule, after deducting any direct expense allowable under the Act which is attributable to such fees, commissions or other income; and
 - (iii) profits or loss from the disposal of equity securities, debt securities or secondary loans specified in the First Schedule, after deducting any specific provision allowable under the Act for the diminution in value of such securities or loans, and adding any taxable specific provision for diminution in value of such securities or loans which is written back; and
- (b) in the case of previous non-incentive income, the aggregate of the following:
 - (i) interest income from the activities specified in regulation 4(1), after deducting any interest expense allowable under the Act which is attributable to such interest income;
 - (ii) all fees, commissions and other income from the activities specified in regulation 4(1), (2A), (2B), (2C), (2D), (2E), (2F) and (2G), after deducting any direct expense allowable under the Act which is attributable to such fees, commissions or other income; and
 - (iii) profits or loss from the disposal of equity securities, debt securities or secondary loans specified in regulation 4(1), after deducting any specific provision allowable under the Act for the diminution in value of such securities or loans, and adding any taxable specific provision for diminution in value of such securities or loans which is written back;

“subsequent qualifying base percentage”, in relation to a financial sector incentive (standard tier) company, means the percentage used to compute the qualifying base referred to in regulation 4(4) in the next immediate subsequent incentive period of the company.

(10) A financial sector incentive (standard tier) company shall cease to apply the initial qualifying percentage or subsequent qualifying percentage on its specified income derived or specified loss incurred, as the case may be, on or after 1st January 2011.

Financial sector incentive company to maintain records

11. A financial sector incentive company shall keep and maintain such records, as may be required by the Minister or approving authority for the purposes of these Regulations, of —

- (a) the particulars of every foreign investor in respect of which it provides its services; and
- (b) the particulars of every settlor and every beneficiary or unit holder, as the case may be, of every foreign trust in respect of which it provides its services.

Revocation and deeming of approvals

12.—(1) The Income Tax (Concessionary Rate of Tax for Approved Fund Managers) Regulations (Rg 7), the Income Tax (Concessionary Rate of Tax for Asian Currency Unit Income) Regulations (Rg 10), the Income Tax (Concessionary Rate of Tax for Derivatives Activities) Regulations 2003 (G.N. No. S 637/2003) and the Income Tax (Concessionary Rate of Tax for Equity Capital Market Intermediary) Regulations 2003 (G.N. No. S 638/2003) are revoked.

(2) A company which before 1st January 2004 was a financial institution with an Asian Currency Unit, other than an Approved Derivatives Trader, shall be deemed to be approved as a financial sector incentive (standard tier) company for the purposes of these Regulations from 1st January 2004 until 31st December 2008 or the date on which it ceases to derive income which qualifies for tax concession under these Regulations, whichever is the earlier.

(3) A company which before 1st January 2004 was an Approved Securities Company shall be deemed to be approved as a financial sector incentive (standard tier) company, and a company which before 1st January 2004 was an Approved Derivatives Trader shall be deemed to be approved as a financial sector incentive (derivatives market) company, for the purposes of these Regulations from 1st January 2004 until the end of the period for which the Minister or approving authority had approved the company for the purposes of the Income Tax (Concessionary Rate of Tax for Asian Currency Unit Income) Regulations in force immediately before 1st January 2004 or the Income Tax (Concessionary Rate of Tax for Derivatives Activities) Regulations 2003 in force immediately before 1st January 2004, as the case may be, or until 31st December 2008, whichever is the later.

(4) A company which before 1st January 2004 was an Equity Capital Market Intermediary shall be deemed to be approved as a financial sector incentive (standard tier) company and a financial sector incentive (equity market) company for the purposes of these Regulations from 1st January 2004 until the end of the period for which the Minister or approving authority had approved the company for the purposes of the Income Tax (Concessionary Rate of Tax for Equity Capital Market Intermediary) Regulations 2003 (G.N. No. S 638/2003) in force immediately before 1st January 2004, or until 31st December 2008, which is the later.

(5) A company which before 1st January 2004 was an Approved Headquarters Company shall be deemed to be approved as a financial sector incentive (headquarter services) company for the purposes of these Regulations from 1st January 2004 until the end of the period for which the Minister or approving authority had approved the company for the purposes of the Income Tax (Concessionary Rate of Tax for Approved Headquarters Company) Regulations (Rg 6).

(6) A company which before 1st January 2004 was an Approved Fund Manager shall be deemed to be approved as a financial sector incentive (fund management) company for the purposes of these Regulations from 1st January 2004 until the end of the period for which the Minister or approving authority had approved the company, or for which the company was deemed to have been so approved, under the Income Tax (Concessionary Rate of Tax for Approved Fund Managers) Regulations (Rg 7) in force immediately before 1st January 2004, or until 31st December 2008, whichever is the later.

(7) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), any exemption under the Income Tax (Concessionary Rate of Tax for Asian Currency Unit Income) Regulations (Rg 10) in force immediately before 1st January 2004 or the Income Tax (Concessionary Rate of Tax for Approved Fund Managers) Regulations in force immediately before 1st January 2004 shall continue to apply, as if those Regulations have not been revoked, to an Asian Currency Unit of a financial institution or to an Approved Fund Manager, as the case may be, approved as such on or before 27th February 2003, from 1st January 2004 until the end of the period for which the Minister or approving authority had approved the Asian Currency Unit or the Approved Fund Manager, as the case may be.

(8) Notwithstanding paragraphs (2) to (7), where a company —

- (a) derives income which qualifies for tax concession under the Income Tax (Concessionary Rate of Tax for Asian Currency Unit Income) Regulations in force immediately before 1st January 2004, or has been approved for the purposes of the Income Tax (Concessionary Rate of Tax for Derivatives Activities) Regulations 2003 (G.N. No. S 637/2003) in force immediately before 1st January 2004 or the Income Tax (Concessionary Rate of Tax for Equity Capital Market Intermediary) Regulations 2003 (G.N. No. S 638/2003) in force immediately before 1st January 2004; and

- (b) ceases to derive income which would qualify for the concessionary rate of tax under these Regulations during the period from 1st January 2004 to 31st December 2004 (both dates inclusive), these Regulations shall not apply to the company and the Income Tax (Concessionary Rate of Tax for Asian Currency Unit Income) Regulations (Rg 10), the Income Tax (Concessionary Rate of Tax for Derivatives Activities) Regulations 2003 (G.N. No. S 637/2003) or the Income Tax (Concessionary Rate of Tax for Equity Capital Market Intermediary) Regulations 2003, as the case may be, shall continue to apply to the company as if those Regulations have not been revoked.

(9) A company which before 27th February 2009 was a financial sector incentive (derivatives market) company shall be deemed to be approved as a financial sector incentive (derivatives market) (financial) company for the purposes of these Regulations from and including 27th February 2009 until the end of the period for which the Minister or approving authority had approved the company as a financial sector incentive (derivatives market) company for the purposes of these Regulations.
