Procedure for appeal

3. This Part sets out with modifications the provisions of Division 1 of Part XX of the Criminal Procedure Code (Cap. 68) that apply to an appeal under section 34(1) of the Act in relation to an OCPO or FRO which is applied for or made under section 15(2) or 21(2) of the Act, respectively.

Notice of appeal

4.—(1) A notice of appeal in Form 1 or 2 set out in the Schedule (as the case may be) must be lodged by the appellant or the appellant's advocate within 14 days after the decision of the original court, with —

(a) the Registrar of the Supreme Court (if the original court is the General Division of the High Court); or

[S 1063/2020 wef 02/01/2021]

(b) the Registrar of the State Courts (if the original court is a District Court or Magistrate's Court).

(2) Every notice of appeal must —

(a) state briefly the substance of the decision of the original court;

(b) contain an address at which any notice or document connected with the appeal may be served upon the appellant or the appellant's advocate; and

(c) unless it is given orally under regulation 8, be signed by the appellant.

(3) In an appeal by the Public Prosecutor against a decision of the original court which is the General Division of the High Court, the notice of appeal is to be signed by the Public Prosecutor personally.

[S 1063/2020 wef 02/01/2021]

(4) After the notice of appeal has been lodged in accordance with paragraph (1) by the appellant (not being the Public Prosecutor) or the appellant's advocate, the Registrar of the Supreme Court or the Registrar of the State Courts (as the case may be) must, as soon as possible, serve on the appellant or the appellant's advocate at the address mentioned in the notice of appeal, a notice stating that —

(a) a copy each of the record of proceedings and the grounds of decision are available; and

(b) those copies can be obtained by applying for them.

(5) Subject to paragraph (6), where an application under paragraph (4)(b) is made, and upon payment of such fee as the Registrar of the Supreme Court or the Registrar of the State Courts (as the case may be) may determine, the appellant or the appellant's advocate must be served with a copy each of the record of proceedings and the grounds of decision.

(6) The Registrar of the Supreme Court or the Registrar of the State Courts (as the case may be) may, as he or she thinks fit, furnish those copies free of charge in any particular case or class of cases.

(7) After the notice of appeal has been lodged in accordance with paragraph (1) by the appellant who is the Public Prosecutor, the Registrar of the Supreme Court or the Registrar of the State Courts (as the case may be) must, as soon as possible, serve on the Public Prosecutor a copy each of the record of proceedings and the grounds of decision free of charge.

Petition of appeal

5.—(1) A petition of appeal in Form 3 or 4 set out in the Schedule (as the case may be) must be lodged by the appellant or the appellant's advocate within 14 days after service of the record of proceedings and the grounds of decision under regulation 4(5) or (7), with —

(a) the Registrar of the Supreme Court (if the original court is the General Division of the High Court); or

[S 1063/2020 wef 02/01/2021]

(b) the Registrar of the State Courts (if the original court is a District Court or Magistrate's Court).

(2) The petition of appeal —

(a) must be signed by the appellant and the appellant's advocate, if any;

(b) must state briefly the substance of the decision of the original court; and

(c) must contain sufficient particulars of any points of law or of fact for which the appellant claims the original court was in error.

(3) Subject to regulation 7, if a petition of appeal is not lodged within the time provided under this regulation, the appeal is treated as withdrawn.

(4) At any time before the petition of appeal is lodged, the appellant or the appellant's advocate may file with the Registrar of the Supreme Court or the Registrar of the State Courts (as the case may be), a notice of discontinuance of the appeal.

(5) If the appellant or the appellant's advocate files a notice of discontinuance under paragraph (4), the appellant or the appellant's advocate must serve the notice on the Public Prosecutor or respondent (as the case may be) on the date of the filing.

(6) The appellant or the appellant's advocate may, after lodging a petition of appeal within the time provided under this regulation, in a notice in writing to the Registrar of the Supreme Court, seek leave of court to withdraw the appeal.

(7) Except with the leave of the appellate court, the appellant or the appellant's advocate is not permitted, on the hearing of the appeal, to rely on any ground of appeal other than those set out in the petition of appeal.

Records of court proceedings to be sent to appellate court and respondent

6. Where the petition of appeal has been filed under regulation 5, the original court must send to the appellate court, and the Public Prosecutor or the respondent or the respondent's advocate (as the case may be), a copy each of the record of the proceedings, the grounds of decision, the notice of appeal and the petition of appeal.

Appeal allowed in certain cases

7.—(1) The appellate court may, on the application of any person debarred from appealing against any decision of the original court for non-compliance with any provision of this Part, permit the person to so appeal if the appellate court considers it to be in the interest of justice.

(2) The appellate court may, on the application of any of the relevant parties, or any person who was given an opportunity to make representations in the proceedings concerned by virtue of section 28(1), (2) or (3) of the Act, permit an appeal to proceed to hearing without the grounds of decision, if —

- (a) the appellate court considers it to be in the interest of justice; and
- (b) the hearing of the appeal without the grounds of decision is required for reasons beyond the control of either party to the appeal.

(3) The permission of the appellate court in paragraph (1) or (2) is subject to such terms and conditions as the appellate court thinks fit.

Procedure when appellant in prison

8.—(1) If the appellant is a prisoner, the appellant is treated as having complied with the requirements in regulations 4(1) and (2) and 5(1) and (2) if the appellant gives to the officer in charge of the prison, either orally or in writing, a notice of appeal and the particulars to be included in the petition of appeal within the times mentioned in those provisions.

(2) The officer in charge of the prison must immediately forward such notice and petition, or the main substance of what the appellant intends to be included in such notice and petition, to the Registrar of the Supreme Court or the Registrar of the State Courts, as the case may be.

Summary rejection of appeal

9.—(1) Where —

- (a) the grounds of appeal do not raise any question of law; and
- (b) it appears to the appellate court that the evidence is sufficient to support the decision of the original court and there is no material in the circumstances of the case which could raise a reasonable doubt whether the decision was right, the appeal may, without being set down for hearing, be summarily rejected by an order signed personally by a Judge (where the appellate court is the General Division of the High Court constituted by a single Judge), a presiding Judge (where the appellate court is the General Division of the High Court constituted by 3 or more Judges) or a presiding Judge sitting in the Court of Appeal (where the appellate court is the Court of Appeal), certifying that the appellate court, having perused the record, is satisfied that the appeal has been brought without any sufficient ground of complaint.

(2) Where the appellate court comprises more than one judge, the decision of the appellate court to reject the appeal summarily under paragraph (1) can only be made by a unanimous decision of all the Judges or Judges sitting in the Court of Appeal.

[S 1063/2020 wef 02/01/2021]

(3) Notice of the rejection must be served on the appellant or the appellant's advocate.

(4) If, in any case rejected under paragraph (1), the appellant or the appellant's advocate gives, within 14 days after the service of the notice of the rejection on the appellant or the appellant's advocate, notice to the Registrar of the Supreme Court of —

- (a) an application for leave to amend the appellant's grounds of appeal so as to raise a question of law; and
- (b) a certificate signed by the appellant's advocate specifying the question to be raised and an undertaking to argue it, the Chief Justice (where the appeal is made to the Court of Appeal) or any Judge of the High Court (where the appeal is made to the General Division of the High Court) may grant leave to amend the grounds of appeal accordingly and restore the appeal for hearing.

[S 1063/2020 wef 02/01/2021]

Notice and time of hearing

10.—(1) If the appellate court does not reject the appeal summarily under regulation 9, it must give notice to the parties to the appeal, and any relevant person, of the time and place at which the appeal will be heard.

- (2) In this regulation and regulation 11, “relevant person” means —
- (a) if the respondent is the person against whom an OCPO or FRO is applied for or made — any person who was given an opportunity to make representations in the proceedings relating to the OCPO or FRO by virtue of section 28(1), (2) or (3) of the Act;
 - (b) if the respondent is any person who was given an opportunity to make representations in the proceedings relating to an OCPO or FRO by virtue of section 28(1), (2) or (3) of the Act — the person against whom the OCPO or FRO is applied for or made.

Appeal to be heard by one or more judges

11.—(1) An appeal before the General Division of the High Court may ordinarily be heard by a single Judge, but if the Chief Justice so directs, the appeal must be heard before a court consisting of 3 or any greater uneven number of Judges.

[S 1063/2020 wef 02/01/2021]

(2) An appeal before the Court of Appeal may ordinarily be heard by 3 Judges sitting in the Court of Appeal, but if the Chief Justice so directs, the appeal must be heard before a court consisting of 5 or any greater uneven number of Judges sitting in the Court of Appeal.

[S 1063/2020 wef 02/01/2021]

(3) An appeal before 3 or more judges must be decided in accordance with the opinion of a majority of them.

[S 1063/2020 wef 02/01/2021]

- (4) If the Public Prosecutor requests in writing —
- (a) at any time before the hearing of an appeal before the General Division of the High Court, that the appeal be heard before a court consisting of 3 or any greater uneven number of Judges; or
 - (b) at any time before the hearing of an appeal before the Court of Appeal, that the appeal be heard before a court

consisting of 5 or any greater uneven number of Judges sitting in the Court of Appeal,

and the Chief Justice consents to the request, the appeal must be heard by such a court.

(5) In any case, the appellate court may, on its own motion or on the application of the appellant or the respondent, with reasonable notice to the parties to the appeal and the relevant person, bring forward or postpone the hearing of an appeal, on such terms as it thinks fit as to the costs of the appeal.

Procedure at hearing

12.—(1) At the hearing of an appeal, the appellate court must hear —

- (a) the appellant or the appellant’s advocate, if the appellant appears; and
- (b) if it thinks fit, the respondent or the respondent’s advocate, if the respondent appears, and must hear the appellant or the appellant’s advocate in reply.

(2) If the appellant is in custody and does not appear at the hearing to support the appeal in person or by advocate, the appellate court may consider the appeal and may make such order as the appellate court thinks fit.

(3) If the appellant is not in custody but fails to appear at the hearing of the appeal, the appellate court may dismiss the appeal, except that the appellate court may reinstate the appeal if the appellant subsequently appears before the court and satisfies the appellate court that the non-appearance was not due to the appellant’s fault.

Non-appearance of respondent

13.—(1) If, at the hearing of the appeal, the respondent is absent and the appellate court is not satisfied that the notice under regulation 10 has been duly served on the respondent, the appellate court must not make any order adverse or prejudicial to the respondent, but must adjourn the hearing to a future day and direct the Registrar of the Supreme Court to serve the notice on the respondent for the respondent to appear.

(2) If —

(a) the notice cannot be served on the respondent, or the appellate court is satisfied that the notice has been duly served on the respondent; and

(b) the respondent is absent at the hearing of the appeal, the appellate court may hear the appeal in the respondent's absence.

Decision on appeal

14.—(1) At the hearing of the appeal, the appellate court may —

(a) if the appellate court considers that there is no sufficient ground for interfering with the decision of the original court, dismiss the appeal;

(b) alter or reverse the decision of the original court;

(c) direct that further inquiry must be made; or

(d) remit the matter, with the opinion of the appellate court, to the original court.

(2) Nothing in paragraph (1) prevents the appellate court from making such other order in the matter as the appellate court thinks just, and by such order exercising any power which the original court might have exercised.

Taking of additional evidence

15.—(1) In dealing with any appeal under this Part, the appellate court may, if it thinks additional evidence is necessary, either take such evidence itself or direct it to be taken by the original court.

(2) Unless the appellate court directs otherwise, the person against whom an OCPO or FRO is applied for or made, or the person's advocate, must be present when the additional evidence is taken.

(3) When the original court has taken the additional evidence, it must send the record of the proceedings duly certified by it to the appellate court for it to deal with in the appeal.

(4) The original court must also state what effect, if any, the additional evidence taken has on its earlier decision.

(5) Sections 233 and 285 to 289 of the Criminal Procedure Code (Cap. 68) apply, with the necessary modifications, to the taking of additional evidence under this regulation.

Grounds for reversal by appellate court

16. Any decision of the original court may be reversed or set aside only where the appellate court is satisfied that it was wrong in law or against the weight of the evidence.
