Functions and powers of a Council

14.—(1) The functions of a Council are —

- (a) to carry out the objects of the Association set out in section 9(1)(c) of the Act, that is to say, the fostering of community bonding and strengthening of social cohesion amongst the people of Singapore, and the activities advantageous towards, or necessary or convenient for, the furtherance of such objects;
- (b) to carry out any function or duty imposed on it by any other written law;
- (c) to advise the Board —
 - (i) on matters affecting the well-being of the residents in the District;
 - (ii) on the provision and use of public facilities and services within the District; and
 - (iii) on the use of public funds allocated to the District for community activities; and
- (d) to carry out such other functions, duties and activities as may be assigned by the Board.

(2) A Council may —

- (a) plan, fund, develop and administer new community and infrastructure projects for the District;
[S 321/2000 wef 01/07/2000]
- (b) administer Government-assistance schemes for deserving residents in the District;
- (c) manage the funds and facilities of the Council;
- (d) accept gifts, donations, contributions and Government grants whether of property or otherwise and whether subject to any special trust or not;

[S 321/2000 wef 01/07/2000]

- (e) work with social workers, voluntary groups and more able persons to help handicapped or less able persons to cope with their difficulties; and
- (f) generally do all such other acts as may be necessary and approved by the Board for the performance of the functions of the Council.

Member's interest to be made known

15.—(1) A member of a Council who is in any way, directly or indirectly, interested in a transaction or project of the Council shall disclose the nature of his interest at the first meeting of the Council at which he is present after the relevant facts have come to his knowledge.

(2) A disclosure under paragraph (1) shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting of the Council and, after the disclosure, that member —

- (a) shall not take part in any deliberation or decision of the Council with respect to that transaction or project; and
- (b) shall be disregarded for the purpose of constituting a quorum of the Council for such deliberation or decision.

(3) No act or proceedings of the Council shall be questioned on the ground that a member has contravened this rule.

Quorum

16.—(1) At every meeting of a Council, one-third of the number of members of the Council shall constitute a quorum and no business shall be transacted unless a quorum is present.

(2) The Chairman, or in his absence any Vice-Chairman, shall preside at meetings of a Council, and if both the Chairman and Vice-Chairman are absent from any meeting or part thereof, such member as the members present shall elect shall preside at that meeting or part thereof.

(3) A decision at a meeting of a Council shall be adopted by a simple majority of the members present and voting except that, in the case of an equality of votes, the chairman of the meeting shall have a casting vote in addition to his original vote.

(4) The Chief Executive Director or his authorised representative shall be in attendance at all meetings and shall participate in the deliberations of a Council.

Vacancies

17. A Council may act notwithstanding any vacancy in its membership.

Procedure at meetings

18.—(1) The Chairman of a Council or any other officer authorised by him shall summon all meetings of the Council for the despatch of business.

(2) A Council may make standing orders to regulate its own procedure generally and, in particular, regarding the holding of meetings, the notice to be given of such meetings, the proceedings thereat, the keeping of minutes and the custody, production and inspection of such minutes.

(3) A copy of the minutes of every meeting of a Council shall be sent to the Chief Executive Director not later than 14 days after the date of the meeting.

(4) Minutes of meetings may be kept in any of the 4 official languages.

Appointment of sub-committees and delegation of duties, etc.

19.—(1) A Council may appoint from among its own members and other persons such number of sub-committees as the Council thinks fit for purposes which, in the opinion of the Council, would be better regulated and managed by means of such sub-committees.

(2) A Council may, subject to such conditions or restrictions as it thinks fit, delegate to any such sub-committee or the Chairman or any member all or any of the powers, functions and duties vested in the Council by these Rules or any other written law.

(3) A Council may continue to perform a function or duty under these Rules or any other written law, notwithstanding the delegation of the power, function or duty under this rule.

Financial provisions

20.—(1) A Council shall comply with the financial rules set out in the Second Schedule and the People's Association Staff Manual issued by the Association.

[S 286/2006 wef 31/05/2006]

(1A) In the event of any inconsistency between any provision of the People's Association Staff Manual and a provision of the Second Schedule, the provision of the Second Schedule shall prevail.

[S 286/2006 wef 31/05/2006]

(2) A Council may undertake fund-raising projects in accordance with the People's Association Rules and Procedures Governing Fund-Raising Projects.

(3) The Chairman or, in his absence, any Vice-Chairman of a Council may execute any agreement relating to the management of the Council for and on behalf of the Association.

Special funds

21.—(1) A Council may, by resolution, establish special funds for specific projects or purposes and all moneys in such funds shall be governed by rules to be drawn up by the Council.

(2) The establishment of any such fund and the governing rules shall be subject to the approval of the Chairman of the Board or Deputy Chairman of the Board.

Financial year

22. The financial year of a Council shall begin on 1st April of each year and end on 31st March of the succeeding year, except that the first financial year of a Council shall begin on the date of appointment of the Council and end on 31st March of the succeeding year.

Accounts and audit

23.—(1) The accounts of a Council shall be audited by the Auditor-General or by an auditor appointed annually by the Minister in consultation with the Auditor-General.

[S 286/2006 wef 31/05/2006]

[S 472/2018 wef 23/07/2018]

(2) As soon as the accounts of a Council have been audited under paragraph (1), a copy of the accounts signed jointly by the Chairman and Secretary-Treasurer of the Council and certified by the auditor shall be submitted to the Deputy Chairman of the Board.

[S 286/2006 wef 31/05/2006]

(3) The auditor may also perform an interim audit of the accounts and financial position of a Council at any time the Association considers necessary.

[S 286/2006 wef 31/05/2006]

Dissolution of a Council

24. A Council may be dissolved —

- (a) by the direction of the Chairman of the Board or Deputy Chairman of the Board; or
- (b) by the unanimous vote of all members of the Council taken at a meeting specially convened for this purpose.

Transfer of assets upon dissolution of a Council

25. Upon the dissolution of a Council under rule 24, all assets of the Council, including balance of funds after settlement of all debts and liabilities, shall be handed to the Association for disposition as determined by the Chairman of the Board or Deputy Chairman of the Board.

FINANCIAL RULES

PART I

RECEIPTS

Responsibility for custody and disposal of moneys and receipts

1. Officers authorised by a Council to receive and collect moneys on behalf of the Council are responsible for the safe keeping and proper disposal of the moneys and the safe custody and proper use of all receipts and other documents for which payments are received.

Register and custody of stocks of receipt books

2.—(1) The Secretary-Treasurer or any person appointed by him shall ensure that particulars of stocks of un-issued manuscript receipt books, serially numbered paper receipts and similar documents of value (referred to in this Schedule as receipt books) are recorded in a stock register, and that the stocks are kept in safe custody.

(2) Any loss of any receipt book must be reported immediately to the Council, which shall then cause an investigation to be made and take steps to prevent their unauthorised use.

Defective receipt book

3. Where any receipt book is found defective —

- (a) a notice to that effect shall immediately be recorded in the stock register referred to in rule 2(1) by the Secretary-Treasurer or person appointed by him under that rule; and
- (b) the receipt book may, if the defect is not a serious one in the opinion of the Secretary-Treasurer or person appointed by him, be used thereafter subject to such further conditions as may be noted in the register.

Destruction of obsolete receipt books

4.—(1) The approval of the Chairman shall be obtained before any stock of obsolete receipt books is destroyed.

(2) The Secretary-Treasurer shall maintain a list of all obsolete receipt books in stock, giving such particulars of the receipt books as are sufficient to enable those books to be identified and stating the reasons why they are obsolete.

Petty cash float

5. The Secretary-Treasurer may retain an amount not exceeding $2,000 as petty cash for which a Petty Cash Account shall be properly maintained and updated for the inspection of the Council.

Surplus funds

6.—(1) A Council may invest its moneys not required for immediate use in accordance with the standard investment power of statutory bodies as defined in section 33A of the Interpretation Act (Cap. 1), and may request the Association to carry out such investment on its behalf.

(2) The signatories for the investments shall be any 2 of the following persons:

- (a) the Chairman;
- (b) a Vice-Chairman;
- (c) the Secretary-Treasurer; or
- (d) any officer authorised by the Council.

(d) Chairman of Council	Up to $500,000
(e) Vice-Chairman of Council	Up to $100,000
(f) Secretary-Treasurer of Council	Up to $30,000.

(2) All items of expenditure approved under paragraph (1)(d), (e) and (f) shall be brought to the attention of the Council at its next meeting.

(3) Where necessary for the efficient operation of a Council's functions, delegation of authority by the Council may be effected and notified in writing to the Association.

(4) A list of delegated officers, the scope of their authorities and their specimen signatures shall be maintained by the Council.

Estimates of revenue and expenditure

11. The Secretary-Treasurer shall collate the requirements of the Council and its sub-committees and present, for approval at the meeting of the Council at least 2 months before the end of each financial year, the estimates of revenue and expenditure for the next financial year together with the supporting notes.

Signing of cheques

12. Cheques drawn on a Council's bank account shall be signed by any 2 of the following persons:

- (a) the Chairman;
- (b) a Vice-Chairman;
- (c) the Secretary-Treasurer; or
- (d) any officer authorised by the Council.

Cash balance discrepancy

13.—(1) Any cash balance shortfall discovered shall be reported to the Secretary-Treasurer who shall carry out an investigation to ascertain the cause of the shortfall and forward a report of such investigation to the Council, with a copy forwarded to the Association.

(2) The officer or officers found to be responsible for the shortfall may be required to make good the loss.

Authority to write-off irrecoverable revenue, debt and overpayment

14.—(1) Any arrears of revenue of a Council, debt due to a Council, or overpayment by a Council reported as irrecoverable, where no negligence or fraud is involved, may be written off by the following person:

- (a) if it does not exceed $5,000 — the Chairman;
- (b) if it exceeds $5,000 — the Council.

(2) At the end of each financial year, the details of the amounts so written off during the preceding 12 months shall be reported to the Council by the Secretary-Treasurer, with a copy of the report forwarded to the Association at the same time.

Liquidated damages and administrative charges

15.—(1) Any liquidated damages or administrative charge imposed under a contract and payable to a Council may be waived or reduced by the following person:

- (a) if it does not exceed $5,000 for any one case — the Chairman;
- (b) if it exceeds $5,000 for any one case — the Council.

(2) Any administrative charge imposed other than under a contract and payable to the Council may be waived or reduced by the following person:

- (a) if it does not exceed $3,000 for any one case — the Chairman;
- (b) if it exceeds $3,000 for any one case — the Council.

(3) At the end of each financial year, the details of every case where any liquidated damages or administrative charge is waived or reduced shall be reported to the Council by the Secretary-Treasurer, with a copy of the report forwarded to the Association at the same time.

PART III

STATEMENTS OF ACCOUNTS

Certified statements of accounts

16.—(1) The Secretary-Treasurer shall, at every meeting of the Council, present certified statements of accounts for the preceding months.

(2) The certified statement shall include, if any, the accounts of the sub-committees of the Council.

Statement of income and expenditure

17.—(1) The Secretary-Treasurer shall also present a statement of income and expenditure of a specific project at the meeting of the Council immediately upon the completion of that project.

(2) If the Secretary-Treasurer is unable to complete this statement in time, the Council may, at its meeting immediately following the completion of the project, defer presentation of the statement to its next meeting but to no other meeting.

Filing of statements of income and expenditure

18.—(1) All statements of income and expenditure and accounting records of a Council shall be properly filed and maintained by the Secretary-Treasurer.

(2) The Secretary-Treasurer shall also maintain a cash book for the Council.

(3) The Secretary-Treasurer shall submit these statements, accounting records and cash book for inspection by the Association as and when required.

PART IV

INVENTORY AND ASSETS

Authority to delete assets from inventories

19.—(1) Subject to rules 20, 21 and 22, the authority of a Council is required for the deletion of items of stock from inventories of plant, machinery, fixtures and other assets in the event of their ceasing to be in stock.

(2) Where such items were disposed of by sale duly authorised by the Council, they may be deleted without obtaining such authority.

Write-off of asset

20.—(1) The authority of a Council to write-off any asset that is unserviceable, obsolete, uneconomical to repair or redundant, is as follows:
