- (2) If the person on whom the document is to be served —
- (a) cannot, by the exercise of due diligence, be found; or
 - (b) does not —
 - (i) appear to have a business address, or usual or last known address in Singapore;
 - (ii) appear to have any email address through which service can be effected under paragraph (1); and

- (iii) appear to have appointed an appointed representative to accept service of the document, the document may be served by causing a notification containing the following information to be published in the Gazette:

- (c) a statement identifying that document;
- (d) a statement that the person to be served may obtain that document from the Competent Authority by writing to the address or email address specified in the notification, or by any other way that may be specified in the notification.

Reasonable efforts prescribed for purposes of section 32(11) of Act

11.—(1) The reasonable efforts required to be made under section 32(5)(b) of the Act to give a copy of the Declaration, or under section 32(10)(b) of the Act to give a copy of the notice of suspension, variation or cancellation of the Declaration (called in this regulation the notice), to the owner or operator of a declared online location are any one of the following:

- (a) by leaving a copy of the Declaration or notice with the owner or operator;
- (b) by leaving a copy of the Declaration or notice at the business address of the owner or operator;
- (c) by posting the Declaration or notice by registered post to the business address, or usual or last known address in Singapore, of the owner or operator;
- (d) if the owner or operator has an email address which the person may be contacted at — by sending an electronic communication of a copy of the Declaration or notice to that email address;
- (e) if the owner or operator has an account created with an internet intermediary for the use of an internet intermediary service, and that internet intermediary service provides a mechanism for that owner or operator to receive electronic communications in that account — by sending an electronic communication of a copy of the Declaration or notice to that account;

(f) if the owner or operator maintains an Internet website, a blog or a page on any social media or social networking Internet website, and that Internet website, blog or page on that social media or social networking Internet website provides a mechanism for correspondence with the person, or the posting of comments, on that Internet website, blog or page on that social media or social networking Internet website — by posting an electronic communication of the Declaration or notice on that Internet website, blog or page on that social media or social networking Internet website.

(2) If the person on whom a declaration is to be served —

(a) cannot, by the exercise of due diligence, be found; or

(b) does not —

(i) appear to have a business address, or usual or last known address in Singapore;

(ii) appear to have any email address, or any account created with an internet intermediary for the use of an internet intermediary service, through which service can be effected under paragraph (1); and

(iii) appear to have maintained any Internet website, a blog or a page on any social media or social networking Internet website through which service can be effected under paragraph (1), the declaration may be served by causing a notification containing the following information to be published in the Gazette:

(c) a statement identifying the Declaration;

(d) a statement that the person to be served may obtain a copy of the Declaration from the Competent Authority by writing to the address or email address specified in the notification, or by any other way that may be specified in the notification.

Prescribed period for sections 33(1)(a), 34(1)(a) and 37(1), (2) and (3) of Act

12. For the purposes of sections 33(1)(a), 34(1)(a) and 37(1), (2) and (3) of the Act, the prescribed period is 10 consecutive days (excluding any Saturday, Sunday or public holiday).

Applications to vary or cancel Direction or Remedial Order, or to suspend, vary or cancel Declaration

- 13.—(1) This regulation applies to —
- (a) an application to vary or cancel —
 - (i) a Part 3 Direction under section 19(2)(b) of the Act;
 - (ii) a Part 4 Direction or Remedial Order under section 31(2)(b) of the Act; and
 - (iii) an Account Restriction Direction under section 46(2)(b) of the Act; and
 - (b) an application to suspend, vary or cancel a Declaration under section 32(9)(b) of the Act.
- (2) An application mentioned in paragraph (1) —
- (a) must be in writing;
 - (b) must either —
 - (i) be made and completed in the form that may be obtained from the Uniform Resource Locator (URL) specified in the Part 3 Direction, Part 4 Direction, Remedial Order, Declaration or Account Restriction Direction, as the case may be; or
 - (ii) if not made and completed in that form, meet the requirements mentioned in paragraph (3); and
 - (c) must be sent to the email address specified —
 - (i) in the Part 3 Direction, Part 4 Direction, Remedial Order, Declaration or Account Restriction Direction, as the case may be; or

- (ii) on the POFMA Office website at <http://www.pofmaoffice.gov.sg>.
- (3) For the purposes of paragraph (2)(b)(ii), the requirements are —
- (a) that the application sets out —
- (i) the name and address of the applicant;
 - (ii) if applicable, the name and address of the applicant's authorised representative or legal representative; and
 - (iii) an address in Singapore or an email address, at which documents may, in connection with the application, be served on the applicant;
- (b) that the application contains —
- (i) a summary of the grounds for the application, as the case may be —
 - (A) to vary or cancel the Part 3 Direction, Part 4 Direction, Remedial Order or Account Restriction Direction; or
 - (B) to suspend, vary or cancel the Declaration;
 - (ii) the arguments for each ground of the application; and
 - (iii) the relief sought by the applicant;
- (c) that the application —
- (i) be accompanied by a copy of the relevant Part 3 Direction, Part 4 Direction, Remedial Order, Declaration or Account Restriction Direction; or
 - (ii) if a copy is not available, identifies the relevant Part 3 Direction, Part 4 Direction, Remedial Order, Declaration or Account Restriction Direction;
- (d) that the application is accompanied by all the documents supporting the arguments and grounds of the application; and
- (e) that the application is signed and dated by the applicant, or by the applicant's authorised representative or legal representative.

Period for Minister to determine application under regulation 13

14.—(1) The Minister must issue a notice of his or her decision within 2 working days after the date on which an application mentioned in regulation 13(1), and sent in accordance with regulation 13(2)(c), is received.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1), an application mentioned in regulation 13(1) that is received on a working day before 4 p.m., is treated to have been received on that working day, and, in any other case, the working day next following.

(3) If the Minister does not issue a notice of his or her decision within the time mentioned in paragraph (1), the application mentioned in regulation 13(1) is treated as refused.

(4) In this regulation, “working day” means any day other than a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday.

Codes of practice

15.—(1) For the purpose of section 48(1), read with section 48(3), of the Act, codes of practice may be issued by the Competent Authority to apply to —

- (a) the following digital advertising intermediaries:
 - (i) Google, in respect of Google Ads;
 - (ii) Facebook, Inc., in respect of Facebook Audience Network; and
- (b) the following internet intermediaries:
 - (i) Google LLC, in respect of —
 - (A) Google Search; and
 - (B) YouTube;
 - (ii) Facebook, Inc., in respect of —
 - (A) Facebook; and
 - (B) Instagram;
