No. S 102

PHARMACISTS REGISTRATION ACT
(CHAPTER 230)

PHARMACISTS REGISTRATION (EXEMPTION) ORDER 2018

ARRANGEMENT OF PARAGRAPHS

Paragraph

1. Citation and commencement
  2. Exemption

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 71 of the Pharmacists Registration Act, the Minister for Health, after consultation with the Singapore Pharmacy Council, makes the following Order:

Citation and commencement

1. This Order is the Pharmacists Registration (Exemption) Order 2018 and comes into operation on 28 February 2018.

Exemption

2.—(1) Section 28 of the Act does not apply to a collaborative prescribing practitioner if —

- (a) the collaborative prescribing practitioner provides a collaborative prescribing service at an approved institution in accordance with regulation 56C of the Private Hospitals and Medical Clinics Regulations (Cap. 248, Rg 1); and
- (b) for the purpose, or in the course, of providing the collaborative prescribing service, the collaborative prescribing practitioner initiates or modifies medication therapy in accordance with his or her collaborative practice agreement with the approved institution.

(2) In this paragraph, “approved institution”, “collaborative practice agreement” and “collaborative prescribing practitioner” have the same meanings as in regulation 56C(6) of the Private Hospitals and Medical Clinics Regulations.

Made on 8 February 2018.
