Suspension of driving licence

4.—(1) The Deputy Commissioner of Police may suspend, for a period not exceeding 36 months, the driving licence of any person who has been awarded within a period of 24 months a total number of 24 or more demerit points.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), where the driving licence of a person has been suspended or is liable to suspension under paragraph (1), then notwithstanding paragraph (1), whenever subsequently such person has been awarded within a period of 12 months a total number of 12 or more demerit points, the Deputy Commissioner of Police may suspend the driving licence of that person for a period not exceeding 36 months.

(3) Paragraph (2) shall not apply where the person referred to in that paragraph does not commit any scheduled offence for a period of 24 consecutive months subsequent to the date his licence is liable to suspension or the date of expiry of the suspension or the date of expiry of the period for which he is disqualified by an order of court made on or after 1st March 1983 from holding or obtaining a driving licence, as the case may be.

(4) In calculating the number of demerit points which will render such person's driving licence liable to suspension under paragraph (1) or (2), only such demerit points shall be taken into account as have been awarded against that person within a total period of 24 consecutive months or 12 consecutive months, as the case may be, calculated from the date of the first award of demerit points within that period and all demerit points awarded before that period shall be disregarded.

(5) Notwithstanding paragraphs (1) and (2), where the holder of a driving licence does not commit any scheduled offence for any period of 12 consecutive months, excluding any period for which his driving licence is suspended under these Rules or any period for which he is disqualified by an order of court made on or after 1st March 1983 from holding or obtaining a driving licence, every demerit point awarded against him before that period shall be disregarded in calculating the number of demerit points which will render his driving licence liable to suspension.

(6) Paragraph (5) shall not apply where the demerit points are awarded to the holder of a driving licence after the 12-month period mentioned in that paragraph for a scheduled offence committed before that period and such demerit points would, if taken into account with other demerit points awarded before that period, render the driving licence of that person liable to suspension under these Rules.

Deputy Commissioner of Police to send notice

5.—(1) The Deputy Commissioner of Police shall notify the holder of the driving licence by notice in writing of the date on which he intends to suspend his driving licence and shall require him to show cause within 14 days from the date of the notice as to why his licence should not be suspended.

(2) On the date specified in the notice, the Deputy Commissioner of Police shall, after taking into consideration the facts in mitigation, if any, which may be submitted by the holder of the driving licence concerned, make an order as the Deputy Commissioner of Police thinks fit.

(3) [Deleted by S 645/2010 wef 01/11/2010]

Notice of suspension of driving licence

6.—(1) The Deputy Commissioner of Police shall, upon making an order to suspend the driving licence of a person, notify him in writing of the suspension of his driving licence and shall require him to surrender the driving licence forthwith to him.

(2) Such a person shall not drive or obtain a provisional licence to drive a vehicle of any class as long as the order of suspension is in force.

Prohibition order against holder of foreign driving licence

7.—(1) The Deputy Commissioner of Police may by order (referred to in these Rules as a prohibition order) —

- (a) prohibit the holder of a foreign driving licence who has been awarded a total of 13 or more demerit points within a period of 12 months from the date of the grant of that licence from driving all classes of vehicles in Singapore for a period of 12 months; or
- (b) prohibit the holder of a foreign driving licence who has been awarded a total of 24 or more demerit points within a period of 24 consecutive months from driving all classes of vehicles in Singapore for a period not exceeding 36 months.

[S 645/2010 wef 01/11/2010]

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), where —

- (a) a prohibition order has been made against the holder of a foreign driving licence; or
- (b) an order has been made by a court on or after 1st November 1999 prohibiting the holder of a foreign driving licence from driving any motor vehicle in Singapore,

[S 645/2010 wef 01/11/2010]

[S 645/2010 wef 01/11/2010]

then, whenever subsequently the holder of a foreign driving licence has been awarded a total of 12 or more demerit points within a period of 12 consecutive months, the Deputy Commissioner of Police may make a prohibition order against him for a period not exceeding 36 months.

[S 459/1999 wef 01/11/1999]

[S 645/2010 wef 01/11/2010]

(3) Paragraph (2) does not apply to the holder of a foreign driving licence who has not committed any scheduled offence for a period of 24 consecutive months from —

- (a) the date of expiry of the prohibition order; or

(b) the date of expiry of an order made by a court on or after 1st November 1999 prohibiting him from driving any motor vehicle in Singapore, as the case may be.

[S 459/1999 wef 01/11/1999]

[S 645/2010 wef 01/11/2010]

(4) In calculating the number of demerit points for the purposes of paragraph (1) or (2), only such demerit points shall be taken into account as have been awarded against the holder of a foreign driving licence within the period of 24 consecutive months or 12 consecutive months, as the case may be, calculated from the date of the first award of demerit points within that period; and all demerit points awarded before that period shall be disregarded.

[S 459/1999 wef 01/11/1999]

[S 645/2010 wef 01/11/2010]

(5) Where the holder of a foreign driving licence has not committed any scheduled offence for any period of 12 consecutive months (referred to in this rule as the relevant period), every demerit point awarded against him before the relevant period shall be disregarded for the purposes of calculating the total number of demerit points under paragraph (1) or (2).

[S 459/1999 wef 01/11/1999]

[S 645/2010 wef 01/11/2010]

(6) The relevant period excludes the period any prohibition order against the holder of a foreign driving licence, or any court order made on or after 1st November 1999 prohibiting him from driving any motor vehicle in Singapore, is in force.

[S 459/1999 wef 01/11/1999]

[S 645/2010 wef 01/11/2010]

(7) Paragraph (5) does not apply if —

(a) the holder of a foreign driving licence has committed a scheduled offence before the relevant period for which he has been awarded demerit points during or after the relevant period; and

[S 645/2010 wef 01/11/2010]

- (b) such demerit points, if added to the total number of demerit points awarded against him before the relevant period, would render him liable to have a prohibition order made against him.

[S 459/1999 wef 01/11/1999]

Appeal by holder of foreign driving licence

8.—(1) The holder of a foreign driving licence may, if aggrieved by the prohibition order made against him under rule 7, within 14 days of the receipt of the prohibition order, appeal to the Commissioner of Police whose decision shall be final.

[S 645/2010 wef 01/11/2010]

[S 616/2015 wef 01/11/2015]

(2) The Commissioner of Police may, after taking into consideration such facts in mitigation as may be submitted by the holder of a foreign driving licence, rescind the prohibition order or shorten the effective period of that prohibition order.

[S 645/2010 wef 01/11/2010]
