Assessment of liability

8.—(1) Where an employer fails to pay the levy for any month in full within the time specified in regulation 3, the Agency may assess the amount of the levy payable by the employer under section 3 of the Act and serve on the employer a notice of assessment of the amount due from the employer for that month.

(2) Where an employer has purported to pay the levy within the time specified in regulation 3, but the Agency assesses that the amount paid is below the amount actually payable under section 3 of the Act, the Agency may serve on the employer a notice of assessment of the shortfall due from the employer.

[S 454/2014 wef 01/07/2014]

Notice of assessment

9. The notice of assessment referred to in regulation 8 shall be in such form as the Agency may determine.

[S 454/2014 wef 01/07/2014]

Objection

10.—(1) If any employer disputes an assessment made under these Regulations, he may make an objection in writing and request the Agency to review and to revise the assessment made upon him.

(2) A notice of objection shall be lodged with the Agency within 14 days after the date of service of the notice of assessment and shall state precisely the grounds of objection to the assessment.

(3) The Agency may, upon being satisfied that owing to absence, sickness or other reasonable cause, the person disputing the assessment was prevented from objecting within that period, extend the period for lodging the objection if it appears to the Agency to be reasonable in the circumstances.

(4) Unless agreed by the Agency, where a notice of objection is lodged with the Agency, the employer continues to be liable to pay the levy within the time specified in regulation 3.

(5) In the event of the Agency —

- (a) agreeing with any person who has objected to an assessment made by the Agency as to the amount of levy that is chargeable, the assessment shall be amended accordingly;
- (b) failing to agree with any person who has objected to an assessment made by the Agency as to the amount of levy that is chargeable, the Agency shall give him notice of refusal to amend the assessment; or
- (c) agreeing with any person who has objected to an assessment made by the Agency as to only part of the matters in dispute, the Agency shall amend the assessment to the extent of the matters agreed upon and shall give him notice of the matters on which the Agency has refused to amend the assessment.

(4) The Agency may, in any case, waive the payment of the whole or part of, or remit in whole or in part, any penalty imposed under paragraph (2) where the Agency considers that the circumstances of the case warrant it.

- (b) refund to the person the amount paid in excess.

[S 454/2014 wef 01/07/2014]

(2) No refund shall be made and no amount shall be set off under this regulation unless —

- (a) a written application for refund or set off, as the case may be, in a form approved by the Agency for this purpose is made by the person who claims to have paid levy in excess of the amount payable within 6 years after the end of the month in respect of which the levy has been paid in excess; and

[S 454/2014 wef 01/07/2014]

- (b) the person furnishes such information as the Agency may require to determine the amount paid in excess.

[S 454/2014 wef 01/07/2014]

(3) Where through death, incapacity, bankruptcy or other cause, a person entitled to make a claim under this regulation is unable to do so, his executor, trustee or other representative shall be entitled to have the excess refunded to him for the benefit of that person or his estate, as the case may be.
