to or for the benefit of a specified person.

[S 548/2019 wef 07/08/2019]

General prohibition

7. No person in Singapore, and no citizen of Singapore outside Singapore, is to knowingly do any thing that —

(a) causes, assists or promotes; or

(b) is intended to cause, assist or promote, any act or thing prohibited by regulation 5, 6, 6A, 6B or 6C.

[S 548/2019 wef 07/08/2019]

Duty to provide information

8.—(1) Every person in Singapore, and every citizen of Singapore outside Singapore, who —

(a) has possession, custody or control of any property belonging to —

(i) a designated 2140 List person;

(ii) any entity which or individual who acts on behalf of or under the direction of a designated 2140 List person; or

[S 548/2019 wef 07/08/2019]

(iii) any entity owned or controlled by a designated 2140 List person;

[S 548/2019 wef 07/08/2019]

(b) has information about any transaction or proposed transaction in respect of any property belonging to any designated 2140 List person, entity or individual referred to in sub-paragraph (a); or

(c) has information about any act or thing prohibited by regulation 5, 6, 6A, 6B, 6C or 7,

[S 548/2019 wef 07/08/2019]

must —

(A) immediately inform the Commissioner of Police or any authorised person of that fact or information; and

(B) provide such further information relating to the property, transaction or proposed transaction, act or thing as the Commissioner of Police or authorised person may require.

(2) No criminal or civil proceedings lie against a person for any disclosure made in good faith under paragraph (1).

(3) In this regulation —

“authorised person” means such person as the Minister may designate for the purposes of this regulation;

“Commissioner of Police” includes —

(a) any police officer; and

(b) any person authorised by the Commissioner of Police to act for the Commissioner of Police for the purposes of this regulation.

Power to inspect and seize certain items

8A.—(1) A specified person may inspect any cargo that is bound for Yemen and within Singapore if the specified person has reasonable grounds to believe the cargo contains any item the supply, sale or transfer of which is prohibited by regulation 6A or 6B.

(2) A specified person —

(a) may seize any item for which the specified person has reasonable grounds to believe the supply, sale or transfer of which is prohibited by regulation 6A or 6B; and

(b) must, as soon as reasonably practicable after any such seizure, hand over the item to a police officer.

(3) Sections 370, 371 and 372 of the Criminal Procedure Code (Cap. 68) relating to the handling of property seized by a police officer apply, with the necessary modifications, to any item handed over to a police officer by a specified person under paragraph (2)(b) as if the item were seized by the police officer instead of the specified person.

(4) In this regulation —

“police officer” includes a Commercial Affairs Officer appointed under section 64 of the Police Force Act (Cap. 235);

“specified person” means any of the following persons:

- (a) the Director-General of Customs appointed under section 4(1) of the Customs Act (Cap. 70);
- (b) a Deputy Director-General of Customs or an Assistant Director-General of Customs appointed under section 4(2) of the Customs Act;
- (c) a senior officer of customs appointed under section 4(4) of the Customs Act;
- (d) an officer of customs appointed under section 5(2) of the Customs Act.

[S 745/2021 wef 04/10/2021]

Offences

9.—(1) Any person who contravenes regulation 5, 6, 6A, 6B, 6C, 7 or 8(1)(A) or (B) shall be guilty of an offence.

(2) It shall be a defence for a person charged with an offence in respect of a contravention of regulation 8(1)(A) or (B) to prove that the person had a reasonable excuse for such contravention.

Forfeiture

9A.—(1) A court may, on the application of the Attorney-General, order that any item which has been proven to the court’s satisfaction on a balance of probabilities to be an item that is the subject of a contravention of regulation 6A or carried on board or on or in any ship or aircraft in contravention of regulation 6B —

(a) is to be forfeited to the Government; and

(b) is either destroyed or otherwise dealt with in such manner as the court may order.

(2) In particular, the court may order that the item be dealt with as the Commissioner of Police thinks fit, and in such a case, the Commissioner of Police may direct that the property be destroyed or otherwise dealt with.

(3) The court may require notice to be given to any person who, in the opinion of the court, appears to have an interest in the item to be forfeited.

(4) Where —

(a) the court proposes to order any item to be forfeited under this regulation; and

(b) a person claiming to have an interest in the item has applied to be heard by the court, the court is not to order the item to be forfeited unless that person has been given an opportunity to show cause why the order should not be made.

(5) The court may make an order of forfeiture even though no person has been charged with or convicted of an offence of contravening regulation 6A or 6B in relation to the property to be forfeited.

Exemption

10. The Minister or a person designated by the Minister may, if the Minister or the person considers that it is appropriate to do so in the circumstances of the case and that it is consistent with the intention of the Security Council of the United Nations under Resolution 2140 (2014), 2216 (2015) or 2456 (2019), by notice in writing exempt, subject to such conditions as the Minister or the person may specify —

(a) any person or class of persons; or
(b) any activity or class of activities,
from all or any of the provisions of these Regulations.
