Discovery in maintenance proceedings

2A.—(1) Subject to paragraph (4), the court may at any time order any party in maintenance proceedings to give discovery in such form as the court may direct by filing and by serving on the other party, an affidavit exhibiting a list of documents as specified by the Registrar.

(2) The court may, at any time, on the application of any party in maintenance proceedings, make an order requiring any other party to make an affidavit or give sworn statements stating whether —

- (a) any document specified or described in the application and that is not the subject of any order made under paragraph (1); or

(b) any class of documents so specified or described in the application, is or has at any time been in his possession, custody or power, and if not then in his possession, custody or power, when he parted with it and what has become of it.

(3) Upon the making of an order under paragraph (1) or (2), the court may, if a party states in his affidavit or sworn statement that a document or class of documents is in his possession, custody or power, direct the party to produce and exhibit a copy or copies of the document or class of documents stated in the affidavit or sworn statement in such manner as the court may direct.

(4) An application for an order under this rule must be in such form as the Registrar may direct and be supported by an affidavit or a sworn statement stating the belief of the applicant that the party from whom discovery is sought under this rule had or has in his possession, custody or power, the document or class of documents specified in the application.

(5) The application under paragraph (2) must set out, in respect of each such document or class of documents, the reasons for requesting discovery.

(6) The application under paragraph (2) shall be heard in Chambers before the Registrar.

(7) Order 55B of the Rules of Court (Cap. 322, R 5) shall be applicable to an appeal brought against any order or refusal of any order by the Registrar under this rule.

Duty to give discovery to continue throughout maintenance proceedings

2B. After the making of any order under rule 2A, the party required to give discovery under the order shall remain under a continuing duty to give discovery of all documents falling within the ambit of the order until the proceedings in which the order was made are concluded.

Inspection of documents in maintenance proceedings

2C.—(1) Any party in maintenance proceedings (referred to in this rule as the first-mentioned party) shall be entitled at any time to apply to the court, in such form and manner as the Registrar may direct, requiring the other party to —

(a) produce a document which was referred to in the affidavits or sworn statements of that other party or the bundle of documents filed into court for the inspection of the first-mentioned party; and

(b) permit the first-mentioned party to take copies of such document or documents.

(2) The other party shall offer inspection of the documents at a reasonable time and place unless he objects to such inspection.

(3) The application under paragraph (1) shall be heard in Chambers before the Registrar.

(4) Order 55B of the Rules of Court (Cap. 322, R 5) shall be applicable to an appeal brought against any order or refusal of any order by the Registrar under this rule.

Order for production of documents for inspection in maintenance proceedings

2D.—(1) If a party who is responding to an application under rule 2C —

(a) objects to the production of any document for inspection; or

(b) offers inspection at any time or place which, in the opinion of the court, is unreasonable, the court may, subject to rule 2H and on the application of the party entitled to inspection, make an order for the production of the documents in question for inspection at such time and place, in such manner, and on such conditions, as it thinks fit.

(2) Without prejudice to paragraph (1), but subject to rule 2H, the court may, on the application of any party in maintenance proceedings, order any other party to permit the party who makes the application to inspect any documents in the possession, custody or power of that other party in respect of which discovery has been given under rule 2A or pursuant to any order made under this rule.

(3) In particular, on the making of an order under rule 2A(2), the court may, in lieu of making an order under rule 2A(3), make such orders for the production of the relevant documents for inspection at such time and place, and in such manner, as it thinks fit.

(2) Such affidavit shall state whether or not there are any erasures, interlineations or alterations in the original books, and if so, what erasures, interlineations or alterations there are.

(3) Notwithstanding that a copy of any entries in any business book has been supplied under this rule, the court may order the production of the book from which the copy was made.

Order for determination of issue, etc., before discovery and inspection in maintenance proceedings

2G. Where on an application for an order for discovery or inspection, it appears to the court that any issue or question in the maintenance proceedings should be determined before any discovery of documents or inspection, the court may order that the issue or question be determined first.

Discovery and inspection to be ordered in maintenance proceedings only if necessary

2H. On the hearing of any application for an order under rule 2A, 2C, 2D or 2E, the court —

- (a) may, if satisfied that discovery or inspection is not necessary, dismiss the application; and
- (b) shall in any case refuse to make such an order if and so far as it is of the opinion that discovery or inspection is not necessary either for disposing fairly of the cause or matter or for saving costs.

Order for production of documents to court in maintenance proceedings

2I.—(1) At any stage of any maintenance proceedings, the court may, subject to rule 2J, order any party to produce to the court any document in his possession, custody or power that falls within one of the following descriptions:

 - (ii) support a party's case.

(2) The court may deal with the document when produced pursuant to an order made under paragraph (1) in such manner as it thinks fit.

Failure to comply with order relating to discovery or inspection in maintenance proceedings 2J.—(1) If any party fails to comply with any provision in rule 2A, 2B, 2C, 2D, 2E, 2F or 2I or with any order made under those rules, or both, the court may make such order as it thinks fit.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (1), the further orders that may be made by a court under that paragraph may include one or both of the following orders:

- (a) an order that proceedings shall be stayed until the parties have complied with the relevant provision in one or more rules referred to in paragraph (1), or with any order made under those rules, or both;
- (b) such order as to costs as the court thinks appropriate against the party who fails to comply with the relevant provision in one or more rules referred to in paragraph (1) or with any order made under those rules, or both.

(3) Without prejudice to paragraphs (1) and (2), a party who fails to comply with any provision in rule 2A, 2B, 2C, 2D, 2E, 2F or 2I or with any order made under those rules or both, as the case may be —

2K. Any order made under rule 2A, 2C, 2D, 2E or 2I (including an order made on appeal) may, on sufficient cause being shown, be revoked or varied by a subsequent order or direction of the court made or given at or before the hearing of the maintenance proceedings.

Document disclosure of which would be injurious to public interest: Saving

2L. Rules 2A, 2B, 2C, 2D, 2E, 2F and 2I shall be without prejudice to any rule of law which authorises or requires the withholding of any document or information on the ground that the disclosure of it would be injurious to the public interest, or against the interests of justice.

(d) a copy of an acknowledgment of service in Form 17 (Acknowledgment of Service (Other Party) Form); and

[S 676/2013 wef 02/12/2013]

(e) a copy of a memorandum of appearance in Form 18 (Memorandum of Appearance (Other Party) Form), and rules 11, 12 and 13 shall apply, with the necessary modifications, to the service of a copy of the writ under this paragraph as they apply to the service of a copy of a writ on a co-defendant.

[S 676/2013 wef 02/12/2013]

(6) Any originating summons, summons, pleading (other than a statement of claim) or document may be amended —

(a) without leave before service; or

(b) with leave after service.

(7) An order made under paragraph (6) may contain directions as to the service of the amended originating summons, summons, pleading or document, as the case may be, and as to the making of consequential amendments to pleadings which have already been filed.

(8) Notwithstanding anything in this rule, if the parties have agreed that the divorce shall proceed on an uncontested basis, any pleading may, by written consent between the parties, be amended once at any time without the leave of court before the setting down of the action for hearing on an uncontested basis.

(9) The amended pleadings shall be filed within 14 days after the date on which the written consent of the parties is obtained.

[S 676/2013 wef 02/12/2013]

Withdrawal and discontinuance

23.—(1) A party who has filed a memorandum of appearance in any action under Part X of the Act may withdraw the appearance at any time with the leave of the court.

[S 676/2013 wef 02/12/2013]

(2) A party who has commenced an action under Part X of the Act by filing a writ or originating summons may, without the leave of the court, discontinue the action by filing a Notice of Discontinuance in Form 27 (Notice of Discontinuance Form), so long as the writ or originating summons, as the case may be, has not been served on the defendant or any other party to the action as at the date on which the notice is filed.

[S 676/2013 wef 02/12/2013]

(3) If all the parties to an action consent, the action may be discontinued without the leave of the court at any time before trial by filing a Notice of Discontinuance in Form 27 (Notice of Discontinuance Form) signed by all the parties.

[S 676/2013 wef 02/12/2013]

(4) Except as provided by paragraphs (2) and (3), a party may not discontinue an action under Part X of the Act (including an action commenced by way of a counterclaim) without the leave of the court, and the court hearing an application for the grant of such leave may order the action to be discontinued on such terms as to costs, the bringing of a subsequent action or otherwise as it thinks just.

(5) Subject to any terms imposed by the court in granting leave under paragraph (4), the fact that a party has discontinued an action under paragraph (2), (3) or (4) shall not be a defence for any other party to a subsequent action by the party for the same, or substantially the same, cause of action.

(6) Where a party who has discontinued an action is liable to pay any other party's costs of the action, if before payment of those costs he brings another action for the same, or substantially the same, cause of action, the court may order that action to be stayed until those costs are paid.

(7) A party who has taken out a summons in an action or matter may not withdraw the summons without the leave of the court.

(8) An action begun by writ is deemed to have been discontinued against a defendant if —

- (a) an affidavit of service and acknowledgment of service referred to in rule 13 are not filed in respect of the service of the writ on that defendant before the expiry of 6 months after the validity of the writ for the purpose of service has expired; and
- (b) within that time, a memorandum of appearance has not been filed in the action by that defendant.

[S 676/2013 wef 02/12/2013]

(9) Paragraph (8) shall not apply where the action has been stayed pursuant to an order of court.

[S 676/2013 wef 02/12/2013]

(10) Where an action has been discontinued under paragraph (8), the court may, on application, reinstate the action and allow it to proceed on such terms as it thinks just.

[S 676/2013 wef 02/12/2013]

(11) Nothing in this rule shall prejudice the court's power to strike out any action begun by writ due to the plaintiff's failure to take any step in the proceedings directed by the court.

[S 676/2013 wef 02/12/2013]

Discovery, inspection of documents and interrogatories

24.—(1) Orders 24, 26 and 26A of the Rules of Court (Cap. 322, R 5) shall apply, with the necessary modifications, to any defended proceedings commenced by writ or originating summons under Part X of the Act, except in relation to any claim for ancillary relief in those proceedings.

(2) Rules 25 to 39 shall apply to all matters involving ancillary or financial relief, as the case may be, in any proceedings commenced by writ or originating summons under Part X of the Act.

Discovery in respect of ancillary relief

25.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (7A) and (9) and rule 35, the court may, at any time, on the application of any party to an action or matter, make an order requiring any other party to make an affidavit stating whether any document specified or described in the application, or any class of documents so specified or described, is or has at any time been in his possession, custody or power, and if not then in his possession, custody or power, when he parted with it and what has become of it.

[S 676/2013 wef 02/12/2013]

(2) Upon the making of an order under paragraph (1), if a document or class of documents is stated by the party in his affidavit to be in his possession, custody or power, the court may order the party to exhibit a copy or copies of the document or class of documents in the affidavit.

(3) An application for an order under this rule must be in such form as the Registrar may direct, and be supported by an affidavit stating the belief of the deponent —

- (a) that the party from whom discovery is sought under this rule has, or at some time had, in his possession, custody or power, the document or class of documents specified or described in the application; and
- (b) that the document falls within one of the following descriptions:
 - (i) a document on which the party relies or will rely;
 - (ii) a document which could —
 - (A) adversely affect his own case;
 - (B) adversely affect another party's case; or
 - (C) support another party's case; and
 - (iii) a document which may lead the party seeking discovery of it to a train of inquiry resulting in his obtaining information which may —
 - (A) adversely affect his own case;

(B) adversely affect another party's case; or

(C) support another party's case.

(4) Before an application under paragraph (1) may be filed, the party making the application must serve a written request on the other party —

(a) seeking discovery of the said document or class of documents, in such form as the Registrar may direct; and

(b) setting out in respect of each of such document or class of documents, the reasons for requesting discovery.

[S 676/2013 wef 02/12/2013]

(5) [Deleted by S 676/2013 wef 02/12/2013]

(6) A party who is served with such a written request for discovery shall serve a notice, in such form as the Registrar may direct, within 14 days after having been served with the said request, stating —

(a) which document or class of documents he is willing to provide discovery of, and in what mode he is willing to provide such discovery; and

(b) which document or class of documents he is not willing or not able to provide discovery of.

[S 676/2013 wef 02/12/2013]

(7) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, the document or class of documents which the party is willing to provide discovery of under paragraph (6)(a) shall be provided or made available, as the case may be, within 28 days after the service of the written request for discovery.

[S 676/2013 wef 02/12/2013]

(7A) No application under paragraph (1) may be made unless —

(a) the time specified in paragraph (6) to serve the notice has elapsed, and the party who is served with a written request for discovery has not served such notice;

(b) the time specified in paragraph (7) to provide or make available the document or class of documents that the party who is served with a written request for discovery has notified he is willing to provide discovery of has elapsed, and he has not provided or made available such document or class of documents; or

- (c) the party who is served with a written request for discovery has notified that he is not willing or not able to provide discovery of the document or class of documents specified in the written request.

[S 676/2013 wef 02/12/2013]

(8) In deciding whether to grant an order under paragraph (1), the court shall take into account the extent of discovery which the party from whom discovery is sought has stated that he is willing to provide under paragraph (6)(a), as well as any offer made by the party to give particulars or make admissions relating to any matter in question.

(9) An order under paragraph (1) shall not be made in respect of any party before the granting of the interim judgment, or before the Affidavit of Assets and Means has been filed by the plaintiff and the defendant, unless, in the opinion of the court —

- (a) the order is necessary to prevent the disposal of a party's assets;
- (b) the order is made in conjunction with an order preventing the disposal of a party's assets; or
- (c) there is any other exceptional circumstance necessitating the making of the order.

Duty to give discovery continues throughout proceedings

26. After the making of any order under rule 25, the party required to give discovery under the order shall remain under a duty to continue to give discovery of all documents falling within the ambit of the order until the proceedings in which the order was made are concluded.

Inspection of documents in respect of ancillary relief

27.—(1) Any party to an action or matter shall be entitled at any time to serve a notice, in such form as the Registrar may direct, on any other party in whose pleadings or affidavits reference is made to any document, requiring the other party to produce that document for the inspection of the party giving the notice and to permit him to take copies thereof.

(2) The party on whom a notice is served under paragraph (1) must, within 7 days after service of the notice, serve on the party giving the notice a notice in such form as the Registrar may direct —

- (a) stating a time within 7 days after the service thereof at which the documents, or such of them as he does not object to produce, may be inspected at a place specified in the notice; and
- (b) stating which (if any) of the documents he objects to produce and on what grounds.

Order for production of documents for inspection

28.—(1) If a party who is served with a notice under rule 27(1) —

- (a) fails to serve a notice under rule 27(2);
- (b) objects to producing any document for inspection; or
- (c) offers inspection at a time or place such that, in the opinion of the court, it is unreasonable to offer inspection then or, as the case may be, there, then, subject to rule 35, the court may, on the application of the party entitled to inspection, make an order for the production of the documents in question for inspection at such time and place, in such manner, and on such conditions, as it thinks fit.

(2) Without prejudice to paragraph (1), but subject to rule 35, the court may, on the application of any party to an action or matter, order any other party to permit the party applying to inspect any documents in the possession, custody or power of that other party in respect of which discovery has been given under rule 25 or pursuant to any order made under this rule.

(3) In particular, on the making of an order under rule 25(1), the court may, in lieu of making an order under rule 25(2), make such orders for the production of the relevant documents for inspection at such time and place, and in such manner, as it thinks fit.

(4) An application for an order under paragraph (2) must be supported by an affidavit specifying or describing the documents of which inspection is sought and stating the belief of the deponent that they are in the possession, custody or power of the other party and that discovery has been given of them under rule 25 or pursuant to any order made under that rule.

Production of business books

29.—(1) Where the production of any business books for inspection is applied for under rule 28, the court may, instead of ordering the production of the original books for inspection, order a copy of any entries therein to be supplied and verified by an affidavit of some person who has examined the copy with the original books.

(2) Any such affidavit shall state whether or not there are in the original books any, and if so what, erasures, interlineations or alterations.

(3) Notwithstanding that a copy of any entries in any book has been supplied under this rule, the court may order the production of the book from which the copy was made.

Restriction on use of privileged document, inspection of which has been inadvertently allowed

30. Where a party inadvertently allows a privileged document to be inspected, the party who inspected it may use it or its contents only if the leave of the court to do so is first obtained.

Interrogatories in respect of ancillary relief

31.—(1) A party to any proceedings under Part X of the Act may serve interrogatories on any other party to the proceedings, in such form as the Registrar shall direct, setting out in respect of each interrogatory the reasons for requesting the interrogatory.

(2) The interrogatories must relate to a matter in question between the applicant and that other party to the proceedings, and must be necessary either for disposing fairly of the matter or for saving costs.

(3) A party who is served with the interrogatories shall serve a notice, in such form as the Registrar may direct, on the party who has served the interrogatories, within 14 days after having been served with the interrogatories, stating —

- (a) which interrogatories he is willing to answer, to the best of his knowledge, information and belief; and
- (b) which interrogatories he is not willing or not able to answer.

[S 676/2013 wef 02/12/2013]

(4) Unless otherwise agreed between the parties, the interrogatories which the party is willing to answer shall be answered by affidavit to be filed within 28 days after the service of the written request for interrogatories.

[S 676/2013 wef 02/12/2013]

(5) In the event that no response is received from the party served with the interrogatories within the period specified in paragraph (3), or if that party has stated in writing, pursuant to paragraph (3), that he is not willing or not able to answer any or all of the interrogatories served, then the party who has served the interrogatories may apply to the court for an order for the relevant interrogatories to be answered.

(6) The application for the interrogatories to be answered under paragraph (5) shall be made by way of summons, and shall be in such form as the Registrar may direct.

(7) A copy of the interrogatories which had been served on the other party under paragraph (1) shall be annexed to and served with the summons.

(8) An order under paragraph (5) shall not be made in respect of any party before the granting of the interim judgment, or before the Affidavit of Assets and Means has been filed by the plaintiff and the defendant, unless, in the opinion of the court —

- (a) the order is necessary to prevent the disposal of a party's assets;
- (b) the order is made in conjunction with an order preventing the disposal of a party's assets; or
- (c) there is any other exceptional circumstance necessitating the making of the order.

(9) In deciding whether to grant an application for interrogatories, the court shall take into account any offer made by the party served with the interrogatories to give particulars, make admissions or produce documents relating to any matter in question.

(10) Any interrogatories which the court has ordered to be answered shall be answered by affidavit to be filed within such period as the court directs.

(11) The interrogatories served under paragraph (1) and the application filed under paragraph (5) shall specify, where the interrogatories are to be administered to a body corporate or unincorporate which is empowered by law to sue or be sued, whether in its own name or in the name of an officer or other person, the officer or member on whom the interrogatories are to be administered.

Objections and insufficient answers to interrogatories

32.—(1) Where a person objects to answering any interrogatory on the ground of privilege, he may take the objection in his answer.

(2) Where any person on whom interrogatories have been served, or who has been ordered to answer interrogatories, under rule 31 answers any of them insufficiently, the court may make an order requiring him to make a further answer, either by affidavit or on oral examination as the court may direct.

(3) Where any person gives insufficient answers to interrogatories which have been served on him or ordered under rule 31, the party administering the interrogatories may ask for further and better particulars of the answers given.

Discovery and interrogatories against other person

33.—(1) An application after the commencement of proceedings for an order for the discovery of documents to be given, or for an order for interrogatories to be answered, by a person who is not a party to the proceedings shall be made by summons.

(2) A summons under paragraph (1) must be served on that person personally and on every party to the proceedings by way of ordinary service in accordance with Order 62, Rule 6 of the Rules of Court.

[S 676/2013 wef 02/12/2013]

(3) A summons under paragraph (1) shall be supported by an affidavit which must —

- (a) state the grounds for the application, the material facts pertaining to the proceedings, and whether the person against whom the order is sought is likely to be a party to the proceedings;
- (b) in respect of an application for the discovery of documents, show, if practicable, by reference to any pleading or affidavit served or intended to be served in the proceedings, that the documents in respect of which the discovery is sought are relevant to an issue arising or likely to arise out of a claim made in the proceedings or the identity of likely parties to the proceedings, or both, and that the person against whom the order is sought is likely to have or have had them in his possession, custody or power;
- (c) in respect of an application for interrogatories to be answered, show, if practicable, by reference to any pleading or affidavit served or intended to be served in the proceedings that the answers to the interrogatories are relevant to an issue arising or likely to arise out of a claim made in the proceedings or the identity of likely parties to the proceedings, or both.

(4) A copy of the supporting affidavit shall be served with the summons on every person on whom the summons is required to be served.

(5) The summons shall specify, where the application is for leave to administer interrogatories to a body corporate or unincorporate which is empowered by law to sue or be sued, whether in its own name or in the name of an officer or other person, the officer or member on whom the interrogatories are to be administered.

(6) Subject to rule 35, an order for the discovery of documents to be given by, or for leave to administer interrogatories to, a person who is not a party to the proceedings may be made by the court on such terms as it thinks just —

- (a) for the purpose of or with a view to identifying possible parties to the proceedings in circumstances where the court thinks it just to make such an order; or
- (b) in any case, where the court thinks it necessary to prevent injustice or to prevent an abuse of the process of the court.

(7) An order for the discovery of documents or for interrogatories to be answered may be made conditional on the applicant giving security for the costs of the person against whom the order is made or on such other terms, if any, as the court thinks just.

(8) The court may make any of the orders set out in rules 25, 27, 28 and 29 in the case of an order for the discovery of documents, or any of the orders set out in rule 31 in the case of an order for interrogatories to be answered, against a person who is not a party to the proceedings.

(9) No person shall be compelled, by virtue of such an order for the discovery of documents, to produce any document which he could not be compelled to produce if he had been served with a subpoena to produce the documents at the trial.

(10) For the purpose of rules 27, 28, 29 and 30, an application for an order for discovery under this rule shall be treated as an action or matter between the applicant and the person against whom the order is sought.

(11) Rule 25(4) to (9) shall apply to an application or order for discovery which is made under this rule.

(12) Rules 31 and 32 shall apply to an application or order for interrogatories to be answered which is made under this rule.

(13) Unless the court orders otherwise, where an application is made in accordance with this rule for an order, the person against whom the order is sought shall be entitled to his costs of the application, and of complying with any order made thereon, on an indemnity basis.

Order for determination of issue, etc., before discovery, inspection or interrogatories

34. Where, on an application for an order for discovery, inspection or interrogatories, it appears to the court that any issue or question in the action or matter should be determined before any discovery of documents or inspection is, or answers to interrogatories are, given by the parties, the court may order that issue or question to be determined first.

Discovery, inspection and answers to interrogatories to be ordered only if necessary

35. On the hearing of any application for an order under rule 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32 or 33, the court may, if satisfied that discovery, inspection or answers to interrogatories are not necessary, or not necessary at that stage of the action or matter, dismiss or, as the case may be, adjourn the application, and shall in any case refuse to make such an order if and so far as it is of the opinion that the discovery, inspection or answers to interrogatories are not necessary either for disposing fairly of the cause or matter or for saving costs.

 - (ii) support a party's case.

(2) The court may deal with the document when produced pursuant to an order made under paragraph (1) in such manner as it thinks fit.

Failure to comply with order for discovery, inspection or interrogatories, etc.

37.—(1) If any party fails to comply with any provision in rules 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33 and 36, or with any order made under those rules, or both, as the case may be, then, without prejudice to rule 28(1), the court may make such order as it thinks just.

(2) If any party or person against whom an order for discovery or production of documents, or an order to answer or to make further answer to any interrogatories, is made fails to comply with the order, then, without prejudice to paragraph (1), he shall be liable to committal.

(3) Service on a party's solicitor of an order for discovery or production of documents made against the party, or of an order for the party to answer or make further answer to any interrogatories, shall be sufficient service to found an application for committal of the party if the party disobeys the order, but the party may show in answer to the application that he had no notice or knowledge of the order.

(4) A solicitor on whom such an order made against his client is served and who fails, without reasonable excuse, to give notice thereof to his client shall be liable to committal.

- (b) if no defence or memorandum of appearance has been filed in the proceedings, after the expiration of the time allowed for filing a defence or a memorandum of appearance, as the case may be.
